SENATE

TUESDAY, March 7, 1933

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, Thou art from everlasting to everlasting the same. As it was with Thy people in the centuries gone by and as it was in the days of our ancestors in Scotland and Ireland, when the clans and the tribes were all summoned together to unite, so may we today, in this nation, unite as loyal citizens and as statesmen to do everything we can do for our country.

God bless our native land. Bless it now. Bless all the things that are being done to remedy the conditions which now exist. May we all be hopeful and full of good cheer, even with the depression; and may we expect a brighter and a happier day to come. We ask it in Thy name, and for Christ's sake. Amen.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I will be glad to tell the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, about the bill. In the year 1924 the General Assembly passed an act providing that the salaries of Directors of the Poor in counties having a population between 800,000 and 1,300,000 be fixed at $3,500. per year. When the 1930 census was taken it was discovered that Allegheny County was taken out of that class of between 800,000 and 1,300,000 and put back into a class below 800,000, and the present Directors of the Poor of Allegheny County cannot legally draw the salary that was fixed for them in 1924. This is simply a corrective measure to place the law where it was placed by the General Assembly in the year 1924.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, My purpose in asking that this bill go over in order was to give the Directors of the Poor back home a chance to study it. I asked one of them, Mr. Miller, last week if he was satisfied with the bill. He said, "No, not yet. If you can hold it over for several days, we will let you know." And for that reason I ask that it go over in order.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I have no objection to the bill going over in its order. I just wanted to find out what the trouble was.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

O God, thou most merciful Father, look with infinite pity upon the bereaved members of this House, Messrs. Help them in this their dark hour to bear their burden of grief. Support and comfort them with thy spirit.

Dear Lord God, our gracious heavenly Father, we thank Thee for life, and love, and the joys of hope, and the privilege of service, with our comrades here on Capitol Hill. We invoke Thy blessing upon our Speaker, and the Legislators of this General Assembly. Endow the members of this House with patience to endure, and strengthen them for the struggles of this day. Free the minds and hearts of the leaders, and of the people of our State and nation, from devastating fears. May we remember thy words to thy servant Isaiah, "Fear thou not; For I am with thee be not dismayed for I am thy God, I will strengthen thee: Yea, I will help thee; Yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of righteousness." BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be re-committed to the Committee on Banking for the purpose of further study.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 822, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 306), entitled "An act relating to criminal procedure before aldermen, justices of the peace, and magistrates, in cases of assault and assault and battery, and providing for the assessment of costs in such cases upon the prosecutor, defendant, or county, and the commitment of the prosecutor or defendant in case of default," by preventing the imposition of costs upon the county in such cases.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. O'ROURKE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. O'ROURKE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask, is the intent of this bill to save the county costs in certain cases?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, the intent of this bill is to save the county the costs in cases wherein the prosecutor charges the defendant with either assault or assault and battery.

Mr. O'ROURKE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if the purpose of this bill is to save the county costs in dismissed cases, it will not do so; it will have a tendency to increase the costs. At the present time it runs about four dollars and seventy-five cents to four dollars and ninety-five cents and the constable's cost of two dollars to two dollars and thirty cents, and if the defendant or the prosecutor is committed in default of the payment of these costs, either or both of them, then the costs of committing to the jail in the county in which the case is tried will be increased, and the costs then would run twice, or probably three times as much and the county would have to pay them. If the case is held for court, which you will find in many cases will happen if this bill is enacted, and the case went before the Grand Jury, and if it was thrown out, the costs again would be paid by the county, and would run from thirty to forty dollars. I cannot see how this measure is going to save the county any costs. I am opposed to the bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill you have before you provides that persons who engage in little fistic contests, threatens someone else with injuries, when a warrant is issued and arrest is made, and the squire hears the case, that the squire shall put on the participants in this little entertainment their just dues, paying the expenses of their side-show. Now shall persons rush out, get a warrant, probably without any real cause, come in and have a hearing, take the time of the Justice, have the case heard, and then have the costs put on the county. Every time the cost is put upon the county, it means that much less money for other purposes in the county.

Now, there is some opposition to this bill, but it really originated with one squire who, as I understand, has had a multitude of cases, and the costs always go on the county. Where do the costs go? On the county and out of the county funds into the pockets of the squire and the constable. How many warrants will a squire or a constable issue if they have to depend on some poor litigant to collect? Shall the costs be paid by the county merely to enrich a squire or a constable? Of course, the difficulty with the system as we have it today is that the man who comes for a warrant should pay for it in advance, and before they put the costs on the county. If the applicant, or the prosecutor, that applied for the warrant, pays for it right then and there, then the squire would not have a lot of little inconsequential cases, but the trouble is that they get the warrant on credit, and when he gets the warrant on credit and the squire finds that he cannot get the money from the prosecutor, then he gets it from the county and gives it to himself and the constable.

I ask this House to vote aye, and say that those persons that want this kind of entertainment, that they and not the county shall pay for their amusement.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. O'CONNOR. In the event that the prosecutor in one of these cases of assault or assault and battery is assessed the costs and doesn't pay them, what will happen under this bill if it becomes a law?

Mr. SOWERS. The same thing that happens to him now when the squire doesn't want to help him out by putting the costs on the county.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Is it not a fact that he will be put in jail at the expense of the county?

Mr. SOWERS. Today the law is that when costs are assessed on a prosecutor, that the prosecutor goes to jail if he don't pay them.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Doesn't the magistrate receive his costs under that condition?

Mr. SOWERS. Yes.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I oppose this bill for what I consider a very good reason and one that my friend from Philadelphia has overlooked. We have heard an unlimited amount of speeches made in this House about economy. If this bill were to pass as proposed what occurs to any poor person, in particular one in the bread line in the larger cities, if a neighbor beats him up? If a poor person be assaulted and cannot go to the proper authorities and a warrant issue and have protection, what are we coming to in this country? I feel that this bill if passed will have a very detrimental bearing on our poor people. The fact that one is so poor that he cannot advance the costs of litigation is no reason why he should be denied his rights in the courts of the country and even in the minor judiciary.

I therefore ask the House to vote this bill down.

Shall the bill pass finally?

L. 188), entitled "An act designating the days and half days to be observed as legal holidays, and for the payment, acceptance and protesting of bills, notes, drafts, checks and other negotiable paper on such days"; as amended; declaring Flag Day, the fourteenth day of June, a legal holiday

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I understand the meaning of this bill is to make another legal holiday. I don't see the use to have any more holidays in June. We have too many holidays now. We have Memorial Day just two weeks before this date and July 4th just three weeks later. These dates all come in the busy season and it interferes with the work of the banks. We have enough holidays right now. What we want is more days that we work and I am opposed to this bill.

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House,

It has been frequently said that we have too many holidays and that they come with such rapidity that the observance of one has scarcely passed until another is upon us; that they are a serious economic loss and a waste of precious time. While this argument may have some merit I want to advocate the passage of this bill today to make Flag Day June 14 a legal holiday in this great state of ours because it is one of the most necessary holidays that we can observe and I regret that I have but the feeble breath of my lips to advocate its adoption.

Flag Day does not commemorate any one event in our national life, it is a consolidation of all our patriotic achievements. It does not mark great deeds in the life of any individual or group, it is a combination of all great achievements. Every heroic soldier or sailor "who gave his last full measure of devotion" in every conflict in which this Nation indulged; every ministering angel of mercy who gave hope and comfort to the dying on the battlefields of this Nation; every American artist who flung his soul upon crude canvas and brought forth a masterpiece of beauty; every American sculpturer whose chisel produced angels from crude marble; every American orator whose eloquence brought a nation to action; every American minister of whatever faith or creed who lifted up the fallen, supported the weak, assisted the stumbling, and pointed the way to heaven; every American doctor who was present at the miracle of birth or closed weary eyes in death; every American lawyer who pleaded for justice, and every other American, whether he be drawer of water and hewer of wood, or captain of industry can find in Flag Day an inspiration for achievement and unselfish devotion for the common good of our country because all our accomplishments in art and science, literature, industry and religion and patriotism are emblazoned on that field of stars and stripes.

The American Flag is not a mere piece of silk or bunting, woven by human hands, it is a living thing breathing with a fervor of immortal hope, glowing with inspiration, leaping out in ecstasy of song and story. It is a garden wherefrom a nation sprung watered by the tears and blood of heroic ancestors, it is a home where free men dwell, an altar fragrant with sacrifice, a voice speaking from the tomb wherein heroes sleep.

Flag Day should be a holy day, because it is a day of retrospection and introspection, a day when we lift up our eyes and our hearts from the dusty preoccupation of our daily task and find that within us that we call our soul, that which has made America great, and keeps it great. Let us in this our darkest hour, make Flag Day a holiday, to inculcate patriotism in the hearts and minds of men, because the American flag is the greatest banner of Freedom, and the truest emblem of hope since the Cross cast its redeeming shadow o'er a lonely hill at Calvary.

Do this and let us each night look up into the immensity of blue where God spreads his eternal service flag and there woven in the silky web of night will be written in the glittering stars—my country—my country.

STATEMENT OF CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

Mr. WILSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement as Chairman of the Committee on Education.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we had hoped that we would be able to make a meeting of the Committee on Education this afternoon, in order that we might bring to this floor an educational program next week. I promise you that I am just as anxious as anybody within the sound of my voice to get this work completed and on the floor of the House, so that the House may work its will upon it. It is not possible for the sub-committee on Education to meet at 12.30 in Room 531 to get this program ready. Therefore, there will be no meeting of the Committee on Education this afternoon, but we will make every effort to get this to the committee just as soon as possible and through the committee to the House.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman from McKean will be spread upon the Journal.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, before the recess may I interrogate the Chair of the Committee on State Government?

The SPEAKER. Will the chairman of the Committee on State Government, Mr. Hutton, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUTTON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. I understand that you have called a meeting of the State Government Committee for two o'clock?

Mr. HUTTON. Yes.

Mr. TURNER. I had changed the meeting of the Public Utilities Committee from one-thirty to two o'clock because you said you were going to call the meeting of the Committee on State Government at one-thirty.

Mr. HUTTON. We found on account of the protraction of the session that that would not be feasible, so I would suggest that you change yours to two-thirty.

Mr. TURNER. We have a meeting of the Banking Committee at two-thirty. I will, therefore, ask that the announcement be made that the meeting of the Public Utilities Committee be held a one-thirty. Certainly forty minutes ought to be enough time for every one to get something to eat.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware make that as an announcement?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I desire to announce that the meeting of the Committee on Public Utilities called for two o'clock will be changed to one-thirty at the usual place of meeting.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, February 15, 1933.

Whereas, The continuance of the economic depression has seriously affected the revenues of all forms of Government and necessitates the greatest economy and reduction in governmental costs possible in order that budgets may be balanced, and our unemployed cared for; and

Whereas, The salaries paid to public officers and employees constitute an appreciable part of the cost of government; and

Whereas, Industry and business has been forced to reduce salaries and wages in order to continue operation and provide employment; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That it is the sense of the General Assembly that the salaries, compensation and emoluments of office of all public officers and employees of the executive, legislative and judicial departments of the State Government, should be reduced, and that those agencies and officers of government charged with the fixing of salaries and compensation of public employees should reduce such salaries and compensation in accordance with the provisions of this resolution;

Resolved, That all public officers of the executive legislative and judicial departments of the State Government be urged to agree voluntarily to accept reductions in their salaries, compensation and emoluments of office and return the same to the government or permit it to retain, the percentage of such salaries, compensation and emoluments of office as is provided for by this resolution;

Resolved, That it is the sense of the General Assembly that such reductions in salaries, compensation and emoluments of office should be in accordance with the following standards:

(a) Salaries, compensation and emoluments amounting to $750 and less per annum should not be reduced.

(b) All salaries, compensation and emoluments amounting to more than $750 per annum should be reduced by an amount equal to 20 per cent. of the difference in amount between the present salary, compensation or emolument and the sum of $750.

(d) The whole amount of the compensation of the members of the General Assembly not already paid over should be reduced by 20 per cent.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the General Assembly that such reductions should become effective as of the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three with the exception of those effecting the compensation of the members, officers and employees of the General Assembly, which should apply to all such compensation that has not heretofore been paid.

Resolved, That in order that the General Assembly may ascertain the amount of money which can be saved by the foregoing reductions, the Auditor General be directed to forward a copy of this resolution upon its final passage to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, State Treasurer and Secretary of Internal Affairs, to each member of the Executive Board of the State Government, to the heads of the several departments and of the several administrative boards and commissions, to each of the judges learned in the law of the Commonwealth, and to the officers and members of the General Assembly, with the request that all persons affected thereby notify the Auditor General, in writing, within two weeks of such request, of the acceptance of the provisions hereof and that requisitions of salary for such persons be drawn at the reduced rates, after the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, in the case of members of the executive and judicial branches of the government, and forthwith in the case of members and attaches of the General Assembly.

RESOLUTION

EXTENDING SYMPATHY ON DEATH OF MAYOR ANTON J. CERMAK

Mr. O'NEILL asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 7, 1933.

Gentle, soft-voiced and kind, former Mayor Anton J. Cermak, of Chicago, wearied of the fight that had for nineteen days amazed those who strove with him to save the life that meant so much to others, and left his unfinished task undone.

Starting as an immigrant driving mules in a coal mine, he rose to political preeminence, but as a humanitarian who gave all that was his for others, he will best be known.

His final sacrifice was but the culmination of that devotion to public service which marked his life and was best exemplified in relief work during the World War and at times of mine and hurricane disasters.

His determination to give Chicago the best administration it ever had must be fulfilled by those who follow him, but the force of his character will help even though he is no more; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Nation is indebted to this man who gave his life that the chosen leader of the people might continue his appointed task and lead them on to recovery, prosperity and happiness.

That the City of Chicago, with the inspiration of his sacrifice and his determination to give to it its proper place in the world, must reach that goal despite his loss.

That his life and death both stand out as worthy of emulation by those who seek to aid their fellow men and again demonstrate to the world that here in America opportunity is equal and service has its shining reward.

That this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that a copy thereof be forwarded by the Chief Clerk to the family of the said Anton J. Cermak.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Root, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROOT. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STERLING. Will the sponsor of this bill advise the House whether or not there is any public sentiment for the passage of this measure in the City of Philadelphia?

Mr. ROOT. In my judgment there is, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STERLING. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia advise this House from what source that public opinion emanates?

Mr. ROOT. From discussion with members of this Legislative delegation, discussion with the political leaders of the City of Philadelphia, and discussion with various people in the city who appreciate the job that the present Mayor is doing in that city.

Mr. STERLING. Is it not a fact that this is a wide departure from the practice heretofore followed in Philadelphia in the election of its Mayor?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McKINNEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor of this bill to explain the need for this legislation.

Mr. SPEAKER. Will the sponsor of the bill, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Ruby, explain to the House the need for this legislation.

Mr. RUBY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill proposes to alleviate the overcrowded condition of the Courts of Allegheny County. At the present time there are so many suits now filed that it takes two years before they are heard in those courts. This is not delegating their powers to masters, except to do a certain amount of clerical work that anybody could do. This matter was taken up by a special committee appointed by the Judges of those Courts and composed of lawyers of the Allegheny County Bar who have made this recommendation.

It is in effect an economy measure. Those Judges of whom I spoke are paid $14,000.00 a year. These masters can be employed for a much smaller sum to do the clerical and routine work.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 451, as follows:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws one hundred one) entitled "An act authorizing collectors of delinquent taxes except in cities of the first class to accept payments of delinquent taxes or water-rents or rates in installments" extending the provisions thereof to county taxes other than county taxes in counties of the second class and clarifying the term "delinquent tax collector"

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General

Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws one hundred one) entitled "An act authorizing collectors of delinquent taxes except in cities of the first class to accept payments of delinquent taxes or water-rents or rates in installments" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the collector of taxes collector of delinquent taxes constable or delinquent tax collector or other official authorized to collect delinquent taxes under the provisions of existing general or special legislation during the period in which he is authorized to collect the delinquent taxes of any county except a county of the second class city except a city of the first class and of any borough incorporated district township poor district or school district shall have the power at the request of any taxpayer to accept payment in installments of delinquent taxes or water-rents or rates both before and after the filing of liens therefor but he shall not be obliged to accept and installment of less than ten per centum (10%) of the face amount of the tax water-rent or rate when it became delinquent The acceptance of any installment or installments by any delinquent tax collector shall not prejudice the city borough incorporated district township poor district or school district in the collection of any balance due or in any way impair the validity of any lien filed for such delinquent taxes water-rents or rates or any balance due thereon according to the provisions of any act of assembly applicable thereto nor shall any penalty be abated or diminished because of the acceptance of any such installment or installments but interest on the amount of any installment shall cease after the month in which such installment is paid

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in order that there may be no misunderstanding about House Bill No. 451, Printer's No. 163, this is not creating a new office. It is merely clarifying the term "delinquent tax collector" as used in the acts. The question arose among solicitors as to whether delinquent tax collector was an office to which a man was elected or whether it applied to all collectors of taxes who were at the time collecting delinquent taxes, and for the purpose of clarifying it I asked the Reference Bureau to prepare this act.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RESOLUTION TO GIVE PRIORITY TO LEGISLATION FOR UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF

Mr. SNYDER offered the following resolution, which was twice read, and referred to the Committee on Appropriations:

Whereas, Widespread unemployment and its attendant distress in this Commonwealth has increased progressively and funds to ameliorate the same, from whatever source derived heretofore, are certain to be completely exhausted by April 1, 1933, and

Whereas, In view of the acute competition of other States where distress likewise prevails, this General Assembly can make demand on the Reconstruction Finance Corporation of the United States for the allocation of further funds for relief purposes only after a proper showing and satisfactory proof that it has itself enacted a comprehensive, timely and effectively co-ordinated state unemployment relief measure, and

Whereas, On February 27, 1933, there was adopted and approved a joint resolution for needed banking relief, within a few hours after such resolution had been introduced, and

Whereas, By the continuance of the present policy of giving consideration to other matters not directly related to the present emergency, the anxiety among those who need further relief is increased,

Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (if the House concur), That we recognize our individual responsibility of leadership in the present emergency, and

Be It Further Resolved That, in concrete recognition of this emergency, and either from relief bills heretofore introduced or from others as may be introduced in the next seven days, this General Assembly shall give and by the adoption and approval of this resolution, gives absolute priority and preference to the consideration, amendment and enactment of a comprehensive bill or bills for unemployment distress relief to the exclusion of other measures now awaiting action by this body (amendments to the banking laws alone excepted); it being the purpose of this resolution that unemployment distress relief shall occupy the necessary time, energy and attention of this General Assembly until such appropriate legislation has been enacted.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section nine hundred and one of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws five hundred nineteen) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 901 FILLING VACANCIES IN ELECTIVE BOROUGHS OFFICES If any vacancy shall occur in the office of burgess member of council auditor controller high constable or tax collector by death resignation removal from the borough or from a ward in the case of a ward office or by failure or neglect to give bond as provided by law or in any other manner whatsoever the borough council shall fill such vacancy by appointing by resolution a qualified resident of the borough to such office for the unexpired term of the office

Security for the payment of borough and county taxes may be given by a joint or by separate bond.

Where the county treasurer is appointed as tax collector if the condition of his bond as county treasurer does not secure the payment over and accounting of moneys other than county moneys the court of quarter sessions shall fix the amount of the special bond to be given by the county treasurer for payment over and accounting of other than county taxes.

Gracious heavenly Father, we thank Thee for this new day, with its opportunities and responsibilities. Help us "work while it is day, for the night cometh when no man worketh." May we feel the urgency of our tasks, and be indefatigable in our labors for the common good of our great Commonwealth.

Grant to our Administrators and Legislators, and Officers and captains of industry, wisdom, integrity and patience for these crucial days. Anxious multitudes of our citizenry look to these leaders of thought and action as veritable saviours; may they always have rectitude of example, sound judgment, unerring justice and unconquerable hope. Help them to solve the problems, economic, civic, social, educational and spiritual before them. Especially in these days of financial crises and reconstruction, may they seek Thy help, as Thy servant Moses said, "Remember the Lord Thy God, for it is He that giveth thee power to get wealth." Father God, we do remember Thee and seek Thy guidance in all private and public affairs. Please answer our prayer. Amen.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1317 (Senate Bill No. 527), entitled:

An Act relating to banks trust companies savings banks and other banking institutions providing for the protection of depositors therein and empowering the Secretary of Banking to permit the withholding of payments to depositors under certain conditions.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I feel that it is my duty to oppose the passage of this bill, for a number of reasons.

In the first place, it does nothing whatever to really solve the problem with which we are confronted today. It merely postpones. It offers no solution whatever. I think it is generally agreed that for some reason or other the people have lost confidence in the banks as they are at present operated. There may be a number of reasons for that loss of confidence, and the testimony of Charles Mitchell and General Dawes before the Senate Investigating Committee in Washington a week or two ago contributed to the situation considerably. Their revelations as to the conduct of some of the biggest banks in the United States were not such as to increase the confidence of the people in banks and bankers.

During the past three years several thousand banks have failed. The investigation of the affairs of these private banks has shown that the bankers have used depositors' money for their own private profit. They have been investing it, so-called investing it, at least, in various business ventures that, well, to say the least, are very doubtful or questionable. The results have been that the people have lost confidence.

This bill, as I understand it, will not remedy that situation. It does not do a thing to limit the power of the bankers. It does not do a thing to stop their loaning of money to their directors, either directly or on a contingent basis, when they have repeatedly done throughout the state and nation, with little or no security and which were not paid back at maturity. For various reasons today the banks themselves are suggesting that the government should guarantee the deposits, in other words, guarantee the money in their hands; guarantee the depositors, and if the bankers do not pay it back, the government will, because that in effect is what government guarantee means.

I, for one, as a member of this House, am opposed to any such procedure. I think there is one way to restore confidence in the banks and in the bankers, and that is to take the banks out of the hands of the men who have lost the confidence of the people, because I think that private ownership and operation of the banks has failed. I think that the time has come for legislatures and the congress of the United States to change the system of operating banks, either by extending full banking powers to the Postal Savings Banks, or by establishing a Bank of the United States and establishing branches of it throughout this country. In other words, socialize the banking system. Private ownership and operation has failed. At the present time the bankers wield a tremendous power in this nation. They have gone repeatedly to cities in this country, within the past few months, when they wanted a loan for unemployment relief, or for other purposes, and said, "Well, if you want to get any money from us, you have got to run your city government as we want you to run it." In other words, they have placed themselves as virtual dictators over our city governments. The time will shortly come when they will do directly what they are doing now indirectly, dictate the policies of our state and federal governments in the same manner when they want to borrow money. If this depression continues, and there is no indication that it is going to end tomorrow afternoon, or any time in the immediate future, your state and federal governments are going to be placed in a position where they are going to have to borrow money extensively, and if you are going to leave the banks in the hands of the present bankers, they are going to be in the position of not only dictating the terms on which they will loan money, but also dictate to the government what they are going to do with the money, whether they are going to have sufficient unemployment relief or not.

I object to continuing such power in the hands of the few men who have shown us that they are grossly incompetent; they are utterly disregarding of the welfare of the people of this nation, and I think that the time has come to call a halt, and I therefore ask the members of this House to oppose the passage of this bill, because it offers no solution and only gives the bankers power to say "We want the dough, we are going to keep it," and all they need is the o. k. of the Secretary of Banking. That to my mind is dictatorship by a few rich men in this country over which we will have no control whatever. I consider that this bill at this time will not solve the problem, will not help the situation, will not restore the confidence of the people, but on the contrary will aggravate the situation, as the resolution which you passed last week apparently did make situation worse. I therefore ask that you vote no on this measure.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to vote "no" and file the following reasons:

Senate Bill 527, as drawn represents a fundamental misconception of existing need for emergency banking legislation. The interpretation so far placed upon the bill indicate a misunderstanding upon the part of the secretary of banking concerning the role the banking department should play in rendering assistance to banking institutions which require protection solely by reason of transcendent and abnormal conditions—not only in Pennsylvania but throughout the union.

The measure is described by its friends as a lifeline thrown to struggling banks which—denied the measure of assistance the bill affords would surely sink. It is not the province of the State to save banks which by reason of their own acts have deserved to fail. It is, however, the duty of the State to assist institutions which are menaced solely by a passing frenzy or popular hysteria.

The Secretary of Banking and other apologists for Senate Bill 527 have stated that willingness to accept the terms of the act is in and of itself an evidence of weakness. This is not so. No bank which could upon demand instantly pay all its depositors the sum total of all their deposits has been engaged in banking. The banking commissioner and the sponsors of Senate Bill 527 both presume that inability to pay upon demand is evidence of such weakness as would—in the absence of enactments to the contrary—warrant the Secretary of Banking in taking possession of the institutions unable to meet the demands upon them.

Senate Bill 527 and the Secretary of Banking fail to distinguish between the course of action that can properly be pursued when one bank goes to the law—as a result of its own act—and when all banks are threatened as a result of general conditions over which they have no control. The bill is at variance with itself. In one paragraph it states that the Secretary of Banking shall not proceed to take possession of an institution simply because it elects to operate under the provisions of Senate Bill No. 527, while in another paragraph the Secretary of Banking is directly authorized to take control.

Senate Bill 527 has, it is stated, the support of prominent "Philadelphia and Pittsburgh bankers." If that is indeed so the fact does not stand to the credit of the measure. There have been few indications that there are in either Pittsburgh or Philadelphia a supply of bankers who actually understand banking and who could be relied upon to advise the public when faced by an emergency in the banking field.

The State of Pennsylvania has no right—either through its Legislature or its Banking Department—to intervene for the purpose of prolonging the life of an inherently weak bank. On the other hand, it is the business of the State—and of the State Banking Department to recognize the existence of an emergency. The sponsors of Senate Bill 527 have failed to distinguish between a local situation and a General situation.

The sponsors of Senate Bill 527 say that no bank is compelled to operate under the provisions of the bill and that liquid banks do not need the bill. This statement evidences either incompetence or immature judgment. Once any one bank in a community began operating under the act—so-called liquid banks would be compelled to accept the bill—or cease to be liquid. The public would surely withdraw its funds from a liquid bank, which might fail, in order to place the money so withdrawn with a bank in which "new" deposits were segregated and their safety practically guaranteed by the State. The statement is made that the Banking Department would not permit such transfers. It as a matter of fact, could not prevent them. The State Department of Banking cannot by means of its regulations control public action.

Senate Bill 527 is further opposed because it invests the Secretary of Banking with inconsistent and inordinate powers and charges it with the performance of duties—or rather with the opportunity for extending its activities—notwithstanding the fact the department as now organized does not have at its disposal trained and dependable personnel sufficient to enable it to operate effectively in an enlarged theater of action. For these and other reasons I desire to be recorded as having voted no on Senate Bill 527.

RESOLUTION

EXTENDING SYMPATHY ON DEATH OF SENATOR THOMAS J. WALSH

Mr. MELCHIORRE asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 8, 1933.

As he was about to undertake the greatest task his busy life had known, to enjoy the reward of many years of national service, Senator Thomas J. Walsh, of Montana, quietly and peacefully passed into the great unknown.

Before he had yet begun to enjoy and appreciate the companionship that had come to crown the sunset of his life, death called to him and she was left alone.

His selection by President Roosevelt, from scores of able and competent attorneys for the important post of Attorney General of the United States, was a deserved recognition of his ability, his rectitude, and his courage; therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Senator Walsh the Nation has been deprived of the service of one who had frequently shown his ability as a public prosecutor, whose worth as an advisor had often been demonstrated, and whose standing as a leader of thought was established.

That his native State has lost its most illustrious son, and the wife who had known him so short a time had not yet glimpsed the inner greatness of this outstanding American.

That although his ability and his courage will be greatly missed, his career of distinguished service to his country needed not this last crowning honor to make his fame lasting and his place in the minds and hearts of his countrymen secure.

That this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and a copy thereof be forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House to the widow who mourns his loss.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker, if I am not out of order, I would move to have House Bill No. 1131, Printer's No. 189, entitled:

An Act to provide for the organization incorporation operation and supervision of cooperative savings and credit associations to be termed credit unions designating such credit unions as corporations and defining their powers and duties conferring certain powers and duties on the Department of Banking and providing penalties.

on page 6 of today's calendar, bills on first reading, recommitment to the Committee on Banking for further consideration.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I cannot understand why that bill should be returned to the committee, it has been in the legislature for two or three sessions; it is a bill that has been well considered, and it seems to me as though everybody knows about it. Because it may be a little competitive with banks and may favor neighborhood and local merchants is no reason why it should go back to the committee, and I ask you to vote down this motion.

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker, I ask that this bill be recommitment to the Committee because the Committee has not taken any action on it.

Mr. SOWERS. My recollection is that at the last session, this House passed this bill by approximately 190 votes to about 5 or 6. Of course, the bankers, are in opposition to the bill. The bill provides that neighborhoods may have their credit unions; may have their own little societies or organizations to collect money and loan it among themselves, and I would ask you to vote down this motion.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I requested the Chairman of the Banking Committee to move to recommit this bill, because the bill, as the chairman has stated, which statement apparently was not heard by the gentleman from Philadelphia, the bill was reported out without any action on it by the committee, and therefore, I think the bill should go back to the Committee.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner,

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, yes.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Where did the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, get the information that this bill was reported out without a hearing.

Mr. TURNER. Not without a hearing, without any action on the part of the committee, or through the Chairman of the Committee.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Does the gentleman know that the Banking Committee had a meeting yesterday afternoon at two o'clock.

Mr. TURNER. I do, and I was there.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, as sponsor of this bill, I wrote to the Chairman of the Committee concerning the merits of the bill and at a meeting yesterday afternoon, I spoke to the chairman and he seemed to be of the opinion that this is competitive with banking institutions. I took the matter up with him and convinced him, at least I thought I did, that it did not compete with any banking organization. It merely means that such organizations as business mens organizations, labor organizations, factories, and other organizations of merchants can organize amongst themselves. Under the present laws that we have in the state of Pennsylvania, we only have two ways of obtaining credit. One is to go to the bank and to try to borrow two or three or four or five hundred dollars—I say try to borrow that kind of money from our banking institutions when you are a small merchant. The other kind of credit we have left in the United States when you need one hundred dollars for an emergency, you would either have to go to the Home Loan Institutions and pay three and a half per cent a month—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is speaking on the merits of the bill.

The SPEAKER. A discussion of the merits of the bill cannot be had at the present time. The question before the House is on a motion to recommit.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Have I still the floor?

The SPEAKER. You have the floor under those conditions.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. I advised the chairman of the committee, and this morning I find that the bill is on the calendar, I don't know whether Mr. Turner was in the committee or not, but notwithstanding that, the bill was reported, and it was reported out with the knowledge of the chairman of that committee.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I don't think the issue here is a question as to the merits of the bill. We had a meeting of the Banking Committee yesterday and I was present as I think any member will testify who was here in the House, I was present at that meeting from the time the meeting started until the motion was made to adjourn the meeting. At no time during that time was this bill offered for the consideration of the committee. It is a question of principle as I see it, whether bills shall be reported out of committee without the consideration of the committee, and that is the reason why I ask to have the bill recommitment, and that is the reason why I think it should be recommitment to the committee.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion.

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appear to have it, whereupon a division was called for by Mr. Hermansen.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Mermansen desire to have the Chair withdraw its decision.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Yes.

Whereupon a division was had, ninety-four members voting in the affirmative, and fifty-six members voting in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the bill was recommitted to the Committee on Banking.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections the Chair will declare a recess until 11.50 A. M. Are there objections? The Chair hears none and (at 11.42 A. M.) declares a recess until 11.50 A. M.

AFTER RECESS

The House reconvened at 11.50 A. M.

The SPEAKER (Grover C. Talbot) in the Chair.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to announce to the members that there is about to come before this body a very important resolution, and requests that the members stay within or near the Hall of the House.

If there are no objections the Chair will declare a recess until 12.10 P. M. The Chair hears none and (at 11.52 A. M.) declares a recess until 12.10 P. M.

AFTER RECESS

The House reconvened at 12.10 P. M.

The SPEAKER (Grover C. Talbot) in the Chair.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, March 8, 1933.

Whereas, The President of the United States has by proclamation, restricted business transactions by all financial institutions, and arrangements have not yet been fully completed to provide a medium of exchange for the transaction of business;

Whereas, Sheriffs' sales are pending in various counties and no provision of law exists to stay such sales until financial conditions become normal and a medium of exchange is again provided; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Senate and the House of Representatives hereby authorize the several Courts of Common Pleas of the several counties of this Commonwealth to stay and adjourn until a date not later than Monday, April 3, 1933, the execution of all writs of scire facias, levari facias, venditioni exponas and all other writs requiring the levy and seizure of lands and tenements of personal property now in the hands of such sheriffs, wherein the return day or said writ or writs falls prior to Monday, April 3, 1933, and which under existing law are required to be fully executed or returned before said date;

Resolved, That the General Assembly hereby declares its purpose forthwith to enact suitable legislation more fully to effectuate this resolution; to validate all writs stayed, executed and returned in accordance with the provisions of this resolution; and to relieve all sheriffs of the several counties of this Commonwealth from all liability for complying with this resolution; and to further provide that all such writs which have been heretofore advertised and posted in accordance with the provisions of existing law shall not be required to be re-advertised or re-posted, but the original advertising and posting shall be deemed sufficient compliance with law to effectuate the lawful execution and return of such writs as provided by this resolution;

Resolved, That this resolution shall be effective immediately upon its approval by the Governor.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

AUTHORIZING COURTS TO STAY EXECUTION OF WRITS OF POSSESSION

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the resolution which you have just adopted does not provide for the staying of the execution of writs of possession in the hands of constables. In the House of Representatives, March 8, 1933.

Whereas, Constables are executing writs of possession throughout the Commonwealth, and

Be It Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Senate and House of Representatives hereby authorize the several Courts of Common Pleas of the several counties of this Commonwealth to stay the execution of all writs of possession until a date not later than April 3, 1933, and be it further

Resolved, That the General Assembly hereby declares its purpose to enact legislation more fully to effectuate this Resolution, etc., as provided in said Senate Resolution, and be it further

Resolved, That this Resolution shall become effective immediately upon its final adoption.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

APPROVAL OF SENATE BILL No. 527

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 8, 1933.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 527, Printer's No. 126, entitled, "An Act relating to banks trust companies savings banks and other banking institutions providing for the protection of depositors therein and empowering the Secretary of Banking to permit the withholding of payments to depositors under certain conditions."

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

VETO OF SENATE BILL No. 188

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 11, 1933.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 188, Printer's No. 44, entitled, "An Act to enable the voters of Clinton County to determine the poor district units by which the laws for the relief of the poor are to be administered creating city borough and township poor districts in said county in case the voters are in favor of establishing the same providing for their administration and abolishing the county unit district in such case."

In my message to the General Assembly delivered on Tuesday, January 3, 1933, I said:

"Among the most wasteful forms of government are the Poor Boards. Doubtless there are some excellent Poor Boards in Pennsylvania. But as a whole the system is extravagant, and highly inefficient.

"There are 425 Poor Boards in the State with 920 Directors or Overseers of the Poor. Some cover whole counties, some parts of two counties, some parts of cities. There is neither rhyme nor reason in the way they are distributed, nor in the way some of them behave. Some refuse to make their accounts public. Some are reported to buy cigars, whiskey, and flowers out of tax money to enliven their meetings.

"I recommend that the powers and duties of all Poor Boards be transferred to county Poor Boards, one for each county, where that is not already the case. Such action will not only save money but greatly improve the care of the poor."

Having taken this position at the beginning of this session, I cannot consistently approve a bill which would permit a county poor board to be abolished and local poor boards substituted.

If the voters of Clinton County are dissatisfied with the present administration of poor relief in their county, their remedy is to elect county commissioners who will administer poor relief satisfactorily. If, on the other hand, the voters have no cause for complaint of election, legislation on this question will serve no useful purpose.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

Which was laid on the table.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 11, 1933.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 292, Printer's No. 55, entitled, "An Act Ratifying and confirming sales of real estate of feeble-minded persons where the orphans' court of the proper county decreed or approved the sales of the real estate of such persons with like effect as if said proceedings and sales had been taken in the court of common pleas of the proper county."

Mr. NORTON offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate, March 13, 1933.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, hereby authorize and direct the Insurance Commissioner during the period of the economic and financial emergency now existing, and until such time as he shall declare such emergency to have ceased, to issue such needful rules and regulations respecting the conduct of business in this Commonwealth by Insurance Companies under his supervision, to suspend any provision of the insurance laws in whole or in part, and to impose any condition upon the conduct of business by any insurers which may be necessary or desirable to maintain sound methods of insurance and to safeguard the interests of policyholders, beneficiaries and the public generally during such period.

Further Resolved, That the action of the Insurance Commissioner during the present emergency in issuing rules and regulations is hereby confirmed and ratified.

RESOLUTION REQUESTING ACTION ON NOMINATION OF HONORABLE CLYDE L. KING

Mr. HARRIS offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate, March 13, 1933.

Resolved, That the Committee on Executive Nominations be requested to transmit to the Senate, for action thereon, the nomination by the Governor of Honorable Clyde King as a member of the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I had hoped that there would be no objection to the immediate consideration of this resolution. I do not think there is a more vital question this Senate will be confronted with during all the time we are here. In view of what has been before the committee appointed to investigate the public utilities, I think it is highly necessary that immediate action should be taken on the matter of the confirmation or non-confirmation of Dr. King. If we do not take such action, he will be proceeding in a manner that will cause criticism. Already the Governor of Pennsylvania has said that his usefulness is at an end. Some of us might disagree with that statement. But nevertheless some action should be taken. Either his position should be made secure or he should be released. And I regret that my colleague, Mr. Buckman, with whom I usually agree, objects to the immediate consideration of this resolution. I hope he will rise in his seat and withdraw that objection, and I request Senator Buckman to grant this request and withdraw this objection.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, out of deference to the Senator from Allegheny, I withdraw my objection. I do not believe a resolution of this sort should be considered without some consideration by the committee. However, as this resolution has no binding effect upon the Committee on Executive Nominations, I do not want to stand in the way of that slight gesture, which this resolution is.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, withdraws his objection to the immediate consideration of the resolution.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I move the resolution be referred to the Committee on Executive Nominations.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I move that this bill be sent back to the Committee on New Counties and County Seats.

Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, this bill does not affect any counties in the State except three counties, three sixth class counties. I do not understand why the Senator from Allegheny wants to send it back to the Committee. It only affects three of the higher populated counties of the sixth class, and it only affects the salary of the district attorney. It does not raise or lower the salaries. They are to remain just as they were prior to the 1930 census. So I cannot understand why the Senator from Allegheny desires this bill to be committed, as it has been recommitted three or four times already.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, if it applies to only those counties I now withdraw my motion.

Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, I withdraw my second to the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne has withdrawn his motion.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 385, on third reading, entitled:

An Act providing for the fixing of salaries or compensation of all appointed officers, clerks and other employees paid from the county funds in counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and creating salary boards in certain counties.

be recommitted to the Committee on New Counties and County Seats,

Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, the reason for recommitting this bill.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, this bill applies to second-class counties, where I come from.

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, whether he is aware of the fact that the bill has been in committee four or five times, where everyone was heard on it.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I was never in the committee to discuss the matter.

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I am interested in this bill only to the extent of sixth, seventh and eighth class counties. If the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, desires to amend the bill by striking out "counties of the second class," I have no objection whatever. It has been in committee so often I think the thing to do is to amend it on the floor of the Senate.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, if the Senator from Lycoming, Mr. Sones, intends to amend the bill and take out the second-class counties, I will withdraw my motion and support him.

Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, I withdraw my second to the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, has withdrawn his motion to recommit the bill under consideration.

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. BAUMER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Whereas, The Committee on Appropriations in framing the appropriation program of the Session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, will be required to call before it representatives of departments, boards, commissions and other spending agencies; therefore be it

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committees and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committees may deem necessary. In the House of Representatives, March 13, 1933.

Resolved, That Thursday, March 23, 1933, be fixed as the last day for the introduction of bills in the House of Representatives.

URGING USE OF GRANITE IN CONSTRUCTION OF FEDERAL BUILDINGS

Mr. TURNER offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules:

In the House of Representatives, March 13, 1933.

Whereas, It is desirable that all public buildings should be erected of durable and beautiful materials in keeping with the dignity and function of such structures; and

Whereas, Granite is unquestionably the most suitable stone for exterior walls of permanent buildings; and

Whereas, The quarrying and fabrication of granite has, in the past, been a source of substantial employment and income in twenty-one states; and

Whereas, It is apparent from its general use in Federal buildings erected in all sections of the country that undue preference has been shown limestone, which is largely quarried and fabricated in one state; and

Whereas, This favoritism to machine fabricated limestone has seriously aggravated distressing conditions of unemployment in the granite industry of Pennsylvania and other states; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the United States Senators and Representatives from Pennsylvania be and are hereby urged to secure proper consideration for the use of granite in the construction of Federal buildings in this and other states.

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives forward a copy of this resolution to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in Congress of the United States, and a copy to the Postmaster General of the United States.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE TO COMPILE DATA RELATIVE TO DISABLED OR PARTIALLY DISABLED VETERANS

Mr. WADE offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules:

In the House of Representatives, March 13, 1933.

Whereas, The Federal Congress in the proposed appropriation bill has withdrawn vast sums of money which was heretofore authorized and expended for the hospitalization and maintenance of disabled and partially disabled veterans; and

Whereas, Many thousand disabled and partially disabled veterans, who have been receiving such aid, are citizens and residents of this Commonwealth; and

Whereas, The withdrawal or curtailment of Federal maintenance to disabled or partially disabled Pennsylvania veterans will result in an added financial burden on this Commonwealth not heretofore considered; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a Joint Legislative Committee, to consist of two members of the Senate to be appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate and three members of the House to be appointed by the Speaker of the House, is hereby created, whose duty it shall be to inquire into, investigate and compile data concerning the number of disabled or partially disabled veterans in this Commonwealth effected by such Federal action, and the amounts of money involved, and to report as soon as possible to both Houses in order that the additional duty so imposed on this Commonwealth may be assumed by proper legislation.

JOINT SESSION

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR EDWARD C. SHANNON IN THE CHAIR

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR SHANNON. The Joint Assembly will be in order.

The SERGEANT OF ARMS OF THE SENATE. Mr. President I have the honor to present to you the Committee appointed to escort the Governor to the Hall of the House.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I have the honor to present to you His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, the Honorable Gifford Pinchot.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR SHANNON. Members of the Joint Assembly the Chair presents to you his Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth, the Honorable Gifford Pinchot, who will now address you.

GOVERNOR PINCHOT. Ladies and Gentlemen of the General Assembly: More people are being fed with public money today in Pennsylvania than were being fed in France by the Government of the United States at the height of the World War. One out of every five Pennsylvanians must have relief or go without his daily bread.

Relief can be given only when funds are available. The General Assembly has provided funds for March but it has provided nothing for April. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation, following the lead of the Legislature, has provided funds for March but nothing for April.

From December to March we have required for relief a monthly average of $6,531,672.22. April will demand more than that. Yet the only money now in sight for April is the possible balance of promised Federal funds of $2,129,497.32. Because of the emergency these promised funds are not coming in as planned. If they are delivered in full they will keep the two million we are feeding from actual starvation for less than ten days after April 1st, and no more.

The General Assembly has been in session eleven weeks. It has been fully advised of the situation from the start. On January 3rd in my first message I said:

"In my judgment, the least amount the present General Assembly can afford to appropriate for unemployment relief is $20,000,000. . . . Unless you are prepared to take it from the hospitals and other State and State-aided institutions, to pay the cost of relief out of economies in government is out of the question. . . .

"We cannot expect Federal Aid unless we do our part. And if State and Federal help should fail, Pennsylvania would be the prey to disorders which would cost us vastly more than any possible appropriations for relief."

Again in the Budget Message of January 10th I showed in detail how the $20,000,000 for relief can be provided without new taxes. Five weeks passed during which the General Assembly took no steps toward relief.

On February 14th I went before it again and pointed out that:

"By April 1st all relief funds provided by the State will be exhausted. So will all funds so far allocated by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. It is of the most vital importance that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania should provide additional funds before that time arrives.

"Every consideration of charity and justice, every instinct of self-preservation must lead the General Assembly to make provision for the needs of our people. I weigh my words when I say that without adequate relief chaos lies ahead."

Since then another month has gone by without action. Today not one single bill to provide relief has even passed first reading. So far as relief is concerned—relief, the most vital question before us today—legislation is to all intents and purposes exactly where it was when this session began.

Failure of the State to appropriate for relief cuts two ways. It deprives the Commonwealth of Federal funds as well. And that is vital. Out of every three dollars of relief for Pennsylvanians more than two are today coming from Federal aid. Without these Federal contributions relief in Pennsylvania would have been a ghastly failure. Federal aid saved us when we could not save ourselves.

We cannot hope to feed our unemployed without Federal aid. But the Reconstruction Finance Corporation from the beginning made its grants only on condition that Pennsylvania would do its share. It held that the Nation should not carry the whole load, and it declined to act until the General Assembly had taken action.

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation holds that position still. It has notified me that "Consideration of relief needs for April will await State legislative action." And the President of the United States, in his recent address to the Governors, left no doubt that the States must help themselves before they can expect Federal assistance. He said that if it is proven the States "cannot do any more and the funds are still insufficient, it is the duty of the Federal Government to step in."

But the Federal Government cannot step in overnight. It takes days to get a grant through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. At the very best the time is all too short, and the penalty for being late is appalling.

Yet in the face of this tremendous need and critical necessity, long known, certain leaders of the General Assembly have shoved aside unemployment relief as though it were negligible as compared with beer and Sunday baseball, and far less worthy of consideration than political jobs.

I recognize that most of you have had no part in holding up relief. I recognize gladly that most of you would never be guilty, intentionally, of holding up relief. But I recognize also that relief must not be held up any longer, and that you who want it to come promptly must stand up and be counted. Those who are not for immediate relief are certainly against it.

Under the Constitution five legislative days are required to pass a bill. The first of April is but two weeks off. Unless before that time the General Assembly has made provisions for relief Pennsylvania will stand disgraced among her sister States.

I have opened and have held open every door I could to action by the General Assembly. I have invited your co-operation in this matter again and again. Yet none of the regular leaders of the Legislature have even come to me to discuss relief.

I have scrupulously refrained from expressing to you the natural indignation I have felt at this indifference and delay. Again and again I have pointed out the urgent necessity for action and the compelling reason which demand it.

But now the crisis is upon us. Now the time for soft words has passed. I say to you that the leaders who are responsible are trifling with fire. I say to you that this delay has endangered not only the good name but also the security of Pennsylvania.

Millions of straving people cannot be expected to sit in meekness and silence forever if bitter suffering is brought upon them by the delay of political leaders in the General Assembly.

This depression is attacking the very stamina of our people. Malnutrition, which is semi-starvation, has increased among our children by one-third in a single year. Self-respecting and hitherto self-supporting families find themselves deprived, through no fault of their own, of all the comforts and many, if not most, of the necessities of decent living.

Thousands upon thousand are unable to provide themselves with food. Thousands upon thousands are without clothes, without shoes, without fuel, without milk for the children. Their patience has been beyond all promise, but it is utterly unfair to take advantage of that patience, and it would be folly to press it too far.

Food is by no means the whole of the problem. Families cannot be allowed to freeze. Great quantities of fuel are urgently required. But fuel costs money.

The State Emergency Relief Board has already distributed more than 200,000 pairs of shoes and 800,000 more are urgently needed. They cannot be ordered unless money is in sight to pay for them.

Men and women by the thousands who might be able to work cannot work because of the lack of clothes. The supply of old clothes is almost gone, and in many regions the plight of the people is pitiable.

But the State Emergency Relief Board cannot order clothes for them unless it knows that the clothes can be paid for. Medicines too are in great demand, but medicines cannot be ordered unless the cash is in sight. There is no money for medicines today.

Nearly a million and a half quarts of milk are being given to half starved children every week. Do you want to shut off the supply? But milk, like fuel, and shoes, and clothes, costs money.

Seed for food gardens seems like a minor item, but it will take $700,000 to supply it. And unless we do supply it, three or four hundred thousand families will be deprived of vast quantities of the most healthful food.

Even on the business side this delay is inexcusable. The difficulty of administering six and a half million dollars a month in relief is enormously complicated by uncertainty. Unless what the State is going to do is known in advance no plans can be made for this huge business. And no business of this size, or any size approaching it, could be expected to run smoothly and efficiently if the managers could not tell from month to month what they would have to spend or whether they would have anything to spend at all.

There has been no reason for delay. Even in the face of this appalling situation the way to provide relief has been made smooth before you. No deficit, no new taxes, enter into the plan I have suggested to you. It is based on a budget which is not excelled in any other State.

In this time of falling revenues and general disturbance, Pennsylvania stands out with a balanced budget, with a surplus instead of a deficit, with a greater reduction in its budget than any other State, and with a proposed cut in local taxes of over $50,000,000 if all my suggestions are carried out. There is no other State in the Union whose financial affairs are sounder than Pennsylvania's, no other where the reduction of State expenses has been so great, and no other in which provision is made for lifting from the backs of farmers and home owners any sum comparable with the $50,000,000 which I propose.

And in addition to all this, the budget provides $20,000,000 for unemployment relief without a deficiency, without new taxes, without impairing relief for local taxpayers, without hamstringing the Departments, without pillaging the Motor Fund, and without crippling the most important source of work relief in the Commonwealth,—and does it simply by the better and more economical collection of existing taxes. There is not, to my knowledge, a single other State in the Union which is able so easily to provide for relief the sum of $20,000,000, or any other comparable sum.

And the single obstacle to the enactment of this plan, with all its benefits to the people, is factional politics.

My plan to raise $20,000,000 for relief has four proposals:

1. Let the State collect the four-mills personal property tax, returning to the counties their average receipts from this source for the last five years and one-half of the excess collected. It is estimated that during the next biennium this will produce $13,000,000 to the counties and to the State $13,000,000.

2. Abolish the inheritance tax appraisers now appointed by the Auditor General and permit the Department of Revenue to collect inheritance taxes through its own employes. It is estimated that this will yield for the biennium $2,300,000.

3. Abolish the mercantile appraisers and permit the Department of Revenue to collect the mercantile tax through its own employes. This, it is estimated, will yield $1,700,000.

4. Extend the foreign corporations tax law to eliminate the present tax discrimination against our own corporations. This would yield for the biennium $3,000,000.

Total, $20,000,000.

These figures include collecting the mercantile tax for $264,000 for two years instead of for $1,100,000 as at present, a saving of $836,000. That is what politics is costing in this one item alone.

I have heard no valid objection to the proposal that the State take over the collection of the four-mills tax. That tax is not now being collected in the great majority of the counties of the Commonwealth. As administered today, the tax places a premium on dishonesty and penalizes those who are honest.

The adoption of this plan would eliminate from the payroll of the City of Philadelphia 50 employes of the Personal Property Tax Bureau and a few other political jobs. It is for the people of this State to determine whether it is worth $26,000,000 to them as taxpayers—$13,000,000 to the local real estate taxpayers and $13,000,000 of State revenue for relief—to keep these few political job holders in their jobs.

No one can deny the propriety of letting the Department of Revenue, which is responsible for collecting inheritance and mercantile taxes, do so through its own employes. The only reason against it is that more political plums will be lost.

There are no persons on the State payroll today who do so little for their money as the mercantile and inheritance tax appraisers. At least half of every dollar paid to these employes is thrown away. I ask the taxpayers of the Commonwealth whether they are willing to give up $4,000,000 for the sake of these jobs.

No one can deny the justice of a new deal in the matter of the tax on foreign corporations. Today these corporations pay less than our own Pennsylvania corporations pay. Such a situation is indefensible.

What is the alternative proposed by the political leaders? Just this: To cut out the salaries of useful public servants in order to protect a lot of job holders who are almost entirely worthless to the people but extremely valuable to certain politicians.

The proposal is to retail the useless jobs and take money from useful, honest, and industrious State employes, who are working night and day under the stress of this depression, and divert it to paying salaries to the drones.

I am not trying to protect my own salary. But I insist that if you cut the salaries of earnest men and women who have been working as never before because of the depression, then all high salaries must be cut, including those of the judges, many of whom get as much or more than the Governor of the state.

Tax collector after tax collector is receiving several times the salary of the Governor. Registers of wills—men who require no expert knowledge either of any profession or of government—are being showered with forty, fifty, and sixty thousand dollars and more in a single year for receiving inheritance taxes and transmitting them to the State Treasury.

Remember that we have cut personnel to the bone. Employes have been dismissed right and left. Those who remain are doing extra work and overtime without additional consideration from the State. I cannot repeat too often that there is not a single Department of the State Government which has not been strained to the limit as the result of the depression and all that goes with it.

The morale of the State service has never been better, but you cannot in fairness ask any employe to do double duty and at the same time be doubly underpaid in order to keep drones on the payroll.

And no matter what you do along these lines, you cannot provide by this method anything like the amount which will be needed for relief or even a respectable fraction of that amount.

I am not here to insist upon my plan because it is my plan. I shall welcome any other plan which accomplishes the same results, or better results, without additional burdens on the taxpayers. But to be acceptable to the people any plan must provide $20,000,000 for relief without imposing additional burdens upon localities, without crippling the State Government without diverting money from the Motor Fund, which is the greatest work relief organization in Pennsylvania (or for that matter in the whole United States), and without preventing or reducing tax relief for the overburdened local taxpayer.

I did not make this plan because it was good politics. Politics has no place in this matter. I made it because it was good for the people. Relief is high above politics, and any organization that tries to play politics with relief is signing its own death warrant.

This plan is in the interest of the farmer, the home owner, the taxpayer, the people generally. It is in the interest of every man, woman, and child in Pennsylvania except a handful of politicians. What stands in the way of carrying it through?

Politics and nothing else but politics.

It is said that this plan is "not politically expedient." But I tell you that to trifle with the public safety and welfare in a time like this and with the daily bread of two million people is "not politically expedient." To sacrifice the common good for "political expediency" is a crime against all the people of Pennsylvania.

To consider politics at all in this great emergency, when all political differences have been cast aside by the whole American people, is an offense against decency and a crime against patriotism. I do not believe the General Assembly will allow the politics of a few leaders any longer to block the road to relief.

The people have suffered long enough from the kind of politics that preys upon them, the kind of politics that has held up relief for these months and weeks. The people pay tens of millions a year—unnecessary millions—to maintain political organizations and incompetent unnecessary political job holders. They have bowed their necks to the burden. But for the sake of a few jobs to neglect the call of two million Pennsylvanians, men, women, and children, young and old, in the direct need—that is going too far.

Part of my plan is to lift $18,000,000 in road taxes from the overburdened farmers of Pennsylvania by taking over 53,000 miles of township roads. It has been charged that my purpose in so doing is to increase my political power. I challenge any who believe such nonsense to introduce a bill to take all possibility of politics out of the Highway Department, and all the other Departments as well, by putting them under a strict and effective merit system. If a proper bill can be passed to that effect, I will approve it gladly.

That would be entirely different from the proposal to transfer the Governor's power to an Executive Board not responsible to him—an unthinkable, unworkable proposal which would inject politics into every Department as never before.

I am here to defend the interests and provide for the needs of our people—and not to bolster up any political machine.

If for the sake of jobs or job holders, or excessive office fees, or politics in any other form, an attempt is made to load new tax burdens on our people, or deprive them of due relief from present taxation, or to cripple the State Government or pillage the Motor Fund, I will defend the interests of the people by the use of the power given to me for that purpose, and let the people judge.

I have already given notice, in a previous message, that "if a relief bill reaches me without provisions made for providing the money appropriated for relief, I shall be obliged to veto it, even at the cost of calling an Extra Session."

I repeat that notice now. Once before the General Assembly failed to provide the funds it appropriated for relief, and as a result the hospitals were almost crippled by the loss of millions of dollars. Another Extra Session had to be called to save the hospitals. Under the Supreme Court decision similar action by the General Assembly at this session would have the same result.

I shall take no chance of that happening again. Nor will I run the risk of unwise and unnecessary taxation laid upon our people at the last minute and under the plea of urgent necessity.

The people have every right to know, when money is appropriated for relief, just where that money is coming from. There is every honest reason for telling them, and no reason but politics for keeping it from them.

Official figures show that in January more than 1,300,000 Pennsylvania workers were totally unemployed. At least 800,000 more were employed half time or less. Taken together, these figures mean that the army of the unemployed includes more than half the workers of this Commonwealth.

So great an emergency should call out the best there is in us. I am eager to work with you. Once more I pledge you any help I can give. But without your action the common need cannot be met.

All previous warnings have gone unheeded. I now warn you once more and most solemnly that if you allow political leaders any longer to defer action to provide for two million Pennsylvanians in desperate need, you will endanger the safety and security of Pennsylvania.

I am not here to plead for action as a favor. I am here in the name of the people to demand it as a right.

The two million on relief have a right to action. Every patriotic citizen of this Commonwealth has a right to demand action. And in their name I demand action wholly without regard to any political consideration whatsoever.

ADJOURNMENT OF JOINT SESSION

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR SHANNON. The business for which the Joint Session met having been transacted the Joint Session is adjourned, and the members of the Senate will meet in the Senate chamber.

(GROVER C. TALBOT IN THE CHAIR)

STATEMENT BY MR. TURNER

Mr. TURNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement.

Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, at the request of the Chairman of the Unemployment Committee, I would like to make a statement partly in answer to what His Excellency, the Governor, has said to this House.

You know my feeling, as I have expressed it before to you members of the House, in reference to criticism of this body that we have done nothing. I think every member of this House today is familiar with the arduous work that a number of the members of this House have undergone in the last few weeks. I think, therefore, it is unjustified, and I do not think that we should allow the time to pass, even tonight, without calling to your attention the fact that your Unemployment Committee, composed of some of the most experienced members of this House—and I am not a member of this Committee, although I have been in intimate contact with its work, and so I think I can speak—have been working day in and day out, worked all day yesterday, in order that they might present to this House some program on unemployment relief.

His Excellency, the Governor, has chided us because nobody has talked to him about unemployment relief. I would like to call his attention to the fact that he has been Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania since 1931, and that outside of the appropriation of money for direct relief, he has offered no program to the people of Pennsylvania to bring about a cessation of the depression under which we have gone. I think there has been given to the Governor of Pennsylvania the most wonderful opportunity that any man in public life have ever experienced almost in the history of Pennsylvania: The opportunity of leadership has been given to the Governor of Pennsylvania to help the people of Pennsylvania out of this depression, at least to some degree, but the only program that has been submitted to us in two years' time and this session was the appropriation of twenty million dollars for further relief of the people of Pennsylvania.

This House has wisely appointed an Unemployment Relief Committee with a vision broader than appropriating twenty million dollars for unemployment relief, with a vision that there ought to be something developed out of the genius of the American people that will at least relieve the situation further than the handing out of a dole in food or in clothing or in shelter. There seems to be something further that we can do. The solution of the problem of unemployment relief is to provide employment for the people. Rather than to give them doles in food, we should do something to provide employment in turn for them.

I know that this committee has been laboring with the problems that have been submitted to it, that it has gathered data from other States and other countries, that it has surveyed other fields, and if the Governor had taken the time to inquire of this House or of the Unemployment Relief Committee, we would have been spared the time we have had to spend here tonight listening to this chiding.

A very comprehensive report has been prepared, and it would have been presented to this House tonight had it not been physically impossible to submit it to the House tonight; in other words, to have the multigraphing done. The report is not yet ready for submission, but a bill to appropriate money for unemployment relief is ready. Did the Governor know something about that when he hustled in here tonight and took up our time? Was he familiar with the fact that this Committee would come in with a program, and therefore, he came in here tonight? It seems to me that that is open to your suspicion. The Chairman of that committee, the gentleman from Dauphin County, is here day in and day out, his office is handy, and inquiry would have brought forth the information that the committee had prepared this report, this program, a program infinitely broader than the Governor has ever attempted. It may not approve of it in toto, it may not approve of some of it as to form, but at least a majority of the members of this House know that the committee has studied the problem, that it has given it thought, that it has given to the people of Pennsylvania a program.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman from Delaware will be spread upon the Journal.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be re-committed to the Committee on Public Utilities for the purpose of amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. MUMFORD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill No. 57 I consider the most important utilities bill that can come before this session. It was introduced January 4th, nine weeks ago, and in four more weeks we expect to adjourn, and the last two weeks of the session are generally given up to appropriation bills and cleaning up other matters.

This bill was reported out of the sub-committee to which it was referred without amendment, it was reported out of the Committee on Public Utilities without amendment. It is a simple bill with one idea, to prohibit the raising of rates by utilities until approved by the Public Service Commission. This bill is particularly interesting to me, because I hold in my hand a little brief of our case in the matter of the Warren Gas Company; Erie and Corry having united with us. On page 10, it says: "approximately fifteen years ago the inquiry as to the relations of the respondent company and the public it serves was started." In other words, we have had a case with the gas company for fifteen years with no decision by the Public Service Commission, unless it has been given today.

I don't believe this bill can be amended to make it fair both to the public and to the utilities. If it is to be amended, why cannot it be amended in the Senate?

Members of the House, I would ask you to vote against this motion. This bill ought to be passed, and if it is to be amended it can be amended in the Senate. The only purpose of this bill is to prohibit the utilities from raising their rates until they are approved by the Public Service Commission. If the Public Service Commission does not make a decision for fifteen years it is time something was done to protect the public, and the only way we can protect the public is to fix it so that they cannot raise the rates until they are approved.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we could debate some of the things the gentleman from Warren, Mr. Mumford, has said for a considerable period of time, but I do not think that that is necessary under the present conditions.

In 1913, we all agreed who had studied this question that there should be some provisions as to the raising of utility rates, and that they should not go into effect until after a considerable period of waiting time unless the Commission acted upon them.

I talked this afternoon with one of the members of the Commission—I doubt whether I should mention to you the name of the member, but he is one of the appointees of the Governor on that Commission; I can say that. He said to me that if this sort of provision went into effect it would be impossible for the Commission to function, because there are a great many of these small rates and changes by, for instance, railroad companies, which would have to be passed upon by the Commission before the rate could go into effect. They are over-burdened over there now, they do not have the help with which to perform the duties they should perform.

I suggested to the gentleman from Warren, Mr. Mumford, this evening that we amend it—at the time the bill came out of committee, I asked him the question as to the waiting period.

This question has been given a lot of study by the Public Service Commission, they are recommending some amendments to the Senate bills, if I understand it today, and it seems to me that the gentleman from Warren will lose nothing if it goes back to the Public Utilities Committee, it came from that Committee, we gave him a square deal to start with, and he will get one again, because on the real principle of this thing we are in accord, but I don't think we should put a bill in here which would break down the Public Service Commission overburdened as they are at the present time. I therefore asked him if he would not send the bill back to Committee for the purpose of amendment, and I move that on my own behalf, and I hope that the members will send this bill back.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I also wish to oppose the motion of the gentleman from Delaware. I happened to be a very interested spectator at the meeting of the Senatorial Investigation Committee on Utilities, and at that time I was fortunate enough to obtain from the Chairman of the Public Service Commission the Commission's report whereby they intimated their objection to this bill, due to the reasons stated by the gentleman from Delaware that it would impose these abnormal hardships upon the Commission to function under their present appropriation and make it physically impossible for them to supervise and investigate every rate before they allowed the increase in the tariff.

I might state that reasoning can be adequately answered by this fact in their report: Since October 1st, 1932, they intimated that seven thousand two hundred eighty-one new tariffs were introduced. I say that if it is incumbent upon the Commission to give its approval to new tariffs, the utilities will not at random introduce new tariffs, knowing and realizing that prior to the introduction of the new tariff and before any objection would be filed thereto the recipients of the service from the utilities would have banded together not as individuals to save what is only a few cents, but which in the aggregate would amount to a million dollars.

We have here a very clear answer to that point and I submit while it is on the floor it should remain here, and let the gentlemen of the House express their views thereunder.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, did I understand the gentleman from Delaware to say that he had made a thorough study of the question?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I did not so state; no.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, may I ask if the gentleman has made a study of this question?

Mr. TURNER. I have, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from Delaware prepared to offer an amendment if it is referred back to committee?

Mr. TURNER. Yes, I am, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman prepared to offer that amendment now?

Mr. TURNER. No, Mr. Speaker, because without the required phraseology, I would not endeavor to make it up in a moment. The gentleman from Berks, as a member of the bar, ought to understand that.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, has the gentleman not given the matter sufficient study to know what phraseology he desires to use?

Mr. TURNER. No, Mr. Speaker, I have not studied the phraseology.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, if the matter were to lay over until tomorrow morning, would the gentleman be able to offer an amendment with the thought that he has in mind?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I do not know, it is pretty late, whether I could get the amendment prepared. I could prepare it tomorrow.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not prepared to offer it on the floor?

Mr. TURNER. Oh yes, I am prepared to offer it on the floor, but I am not prepared now.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think it is obvious, from the answers that the gentleman has given, that he wants to get this bill back in committee for reasons other than to amend it.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his point of order.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is referring to me, stating that I have other purposes than I have stated to this House. He is impugning the motives of a member of the House.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The Chair now desires to inform the gentleman from Berks, that he may proceed, and that the motion before the House is to recommit.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I desire to oppose this motion. I think we are thoroughly capable of deciding this question here on the floor of the House. The gentleman from Delaware has said that he has given this matter thorough study. This House having been in session, as you know, for eleven weeks, I certainly think at this time he should be in a position to offer an amendment embodying his ideas upon the question, and I do not feel that we should send this bill back to committee, but let the House pass upon it. We are certainly able to decide a question at this time that has been before the people of the State for I don't know how many years, but particularly for the last two years and which has been discussed in all the newspapers up and down the State.

We know that this particular matter has been greatly abused, that rates have been raised, and as the gentleman from Warren has stated here is a case that has been before the Commission for a matter of fifteen years without action, and I think at this time we should decide this question here on the floor of the House, and I hope that the members will have the courage to vote against this motion.

Mr. MUMFORD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I noticed one bill from the Senate that would allow the rates to go into effect after four months if the Public Service Commission did not act upon them, or if it did act upon them and did not give a decision, and now, if that amendment had been on the statute books, fifteen years ago, it would have helped us for four months and we would have suffered fourteen years and eight months and that is the way we get treated with the amendments.

If the gentleman will make it that the rates go into effect fifteen years after they have been asked for, if the Public Service Commission does not act on them, I will agree to send it back to committee, but I would like to have it when they want to raise the rates that fifteen years shall have elapsed before such rates go into effect.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Welsh and Mr. Hoopes and were as follows:

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitteed to the Committee on State Government for the purpose of further amendment.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORT OF LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on behalf of the Legislative Committee on State Finance I have the honor at this time to present to you in two parts a signed copy of the report of that committee. There will be made available to all of the members of the House about 11 o'clock this evening ample copies of this report. I ask that the receipt of the report be noted on the Journal of the House.

I take this occasion to express publicly the debt of gratitude of the committee to Mr. Henry W. VanPelt, who acted as statistician and director for the committee in the work it pursued. W. Brooke Graves, of Temple University, Charles D. Rohlfing, Edward W. Carter, Bradford W. West, of the faculty of the University of Pennsylvania, and at the same time to express the thanks of the committee to each of those institutions for the loan of the men without which it would have been quite impossible to have this report available for this session of the Legislature. I desire to publicly express the gratitude of the committee to Senators Ziesenheim and Rice and Representatives Haines and Horst, who assisted the committee in the preparation of the section on the Department of Agriculture.

When the report is made available to the members of the House, you will find on the third page a table of contents and a letter of transmittal on the fourth page and succeeding pages which will clearly give you the resume of the work contained in the report. The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman will be spread upon the Journal.

The Chair desires to ask if it is the desire of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, to have this report printed in the Appendix to the Legislative Journal?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, that question is yet undetermined, but if you will let it pass for the moment, we will at the proper time advise you upon that question.

The SPEAKER. The report of the committee will be noted in the Journal.

BILL RECOMMENDED

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommended to the Committee on Judiciary General for the purpose of further consideration and further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I find myself in perhaps the most embarrassing position that I have ever been in before this House, and that is in asking that the bill of the lady from Philadelphia, Miss Brancato, be re-referred to the Committee on Judiciary General. I take it that after you have heard my explanation you will have been convinced that I am right.

Miss Brancato, the lady from Philadelphia, requested that I procure this bill and get it out of the Committee on Judiciary General. I was not able to do that. I was only able to get the consent of the Committee to report it out to the House for the purpose of having it pass two readings as a courtesy to the lady from Philadelphia. I consulted the Chairman of the Committee, Mr. McClure, and asked him whether he would permit me to get sufficient signatures to get the bill out of committee for two readings. I, therefore, prepared a memorandum which in accordance with my promise to that committee, stated that the bill was to be reported out for only two readings, and the gentleman of the Judiciary General Committee who signed that memoranda signed it with the understanding that the bill would be re-referred to the Committee on Judiciary General. I say to you now, and I say to the lady from Philadelphia, that when it comes back to that committee, I shall go before that committee, and I must keep faith with that committee, as I have kept faith with the lady from Philadelphia. I am very much surprised that the lady from Philadelphia, knowing my understanding and knowing my agreement with that committee, that there should be any question about this matter. I, therefore, say that if you will refer this bill back, you will simply be permitting me to keep faith with that committee and with the chairman of that committee, who very kindly agreed to pay a courtesy to the lady from Philadelphia, and to pay a courtesy to me, as I agreed to get that bill out. If this bill is referred back I assure the members of this House that tomorrow morning I shall make a motion before that committee to report the bill out as a courtesy to the lady from Philadelphia. I, therefore, move that this bill be re-referred to the Committee on Judiciary General for the purpose of further study.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have to ask the indulgence of the House again to listen to my objections I have to House Bill No. 534. We have laid on our desks a very exhaustive study by the Committee on State Government in the form of House Bill No. 22. Undoubtedly that committee has indicated that the trend of legislation should be toward the limitation of commissions and the stopping of the increase of bureaucracies and the lessening of governmental functions in private enterprise. At the same time, out of that same committee, we have reported the bill under consideration which is diametrically opposed to this principle. By House Bill No. 534, they attempt to glorify an ordinary craft or occupation by rules and licenses with the dignity of a profession; they attempt to inject into an ordinary occupation instructions, examinations and inspections and other regulatory measures that are entirely unnecessary. They brand this bill as a measure for public health and sanitation but not in any line of this bill do they show any regulation or regulatory measures that are set down. Everything is turned over to the Department of Health for them to ascertain what should be and what should not be in regard to beauty culture. The proponents of this bill undoubtedly have had a tremendous amount of difficulty in order to get together. The bill comes from two sources. We have amendment after amendment. I defy the majority of the members of this House to read the bill, and after having so done to have any clear, concise idea of just what is being attempted. They indicate that this bill is somewhat similar to the Musmanno bill that was passed and applied to barbers. I made a particular investigation among my barber friends in my community and there is not one barber who finds any benefit whatsoever by the barber bill. It is the same way with this. The proponents of this bill do not know what they want. They have come here with some type of tomfoolery legislation with an attempt to bring their craft to the dignity of a profession. Where are we going to stop? I dare say that you men fully realize that an automobile mechanic or a machinist in the practice of his trade has decidedly a more scientific background than beauty culture. If we take this step as they have for the barbers, we are in duty bound to take that step with every art, every occupation and every profession found within the confines of the Commonwealth.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am indeed not surprised by the comments of the gentleman from York for more reasons than one.

First of all, I want to say that during my twenty years experience on this floor, I have yet to see a bill proposed but that somebody could find something wrong with it. That is the common practice.

I am sorry that I must say to the gentleman from York being of a somewhat different faith than I am, that we Christians believe that the Man whom we look upon as the most perfect individual without fault was taken into the background and was crucified—so we believe and so we are taught,—so I am not surprised that some should find fault with this bill. Legislation is only constructed upon two motives, practices and theoretical operation.

The gentleman from York further goes on and says that we are creating in the State Administrative Government a new bureau. True as this may be, yet the fact remains that a bill of the type of this one needs an administrative body, and it must necessarily devolve on somebody to administer the mechanics of the Act.

Secondly, he tells us that the barbers of York have not benefited by the Barber Bill, or as he called it, the "Musmanno Bill." I say to the gentleman from York, and I say to the members of this House, that in the western part of the State of Pennsylvania the barbers of today would not go back to the old system of the unregulated barber shop, the unsanitary barber shop that we had before the bill passed. The only mistake that we made, and I said it at the time, in the barber bill, was that it should never have been placed in the Department of Education, that it was not an educational feature. It was purely a health measure and should have been placed in the Department of Health rather than in the Department of Education.

Again I agree with the gentleman from York. I am not trying to uplift an individual such as an operator, and say that he or she is a professional man or woman, and I agree with him when he uses the word "craft." I think that that is what it is, and this bill does only one thing; it regulates the operator, and makes a place any woman can go to, and the gentleman, if he is married, his wife or his sister or his daughter, they may go to a place where they can receive such treatment as under the conditions and rules of cosmetics or a cosmetician, or whatever term thereto may be applied. I say that if it is just and proper to place a safeguard in the barber shop for men, it is just as proper and sound that the women of Pennsylvania shall receive the same protection as the men of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and gentlemen of this House, it is only an apprehension on the part of the gentleman from York. He is fearful about something, and I should like to know what it is that he is fearful of. I see no wrong in this bill. It is only a regulatory, a health measure.

Again I repeat that this bill is pre-eminently a revenue raising agency for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the people who are engaged in this craftsmanship have no objection to paying for that privilege, and with your indulgence I shall read certain revenues that may be established under this act. I withdraw the word "maybe" and use the words "will be." As an example, the number of beauty culturists in establishments in the State of Pennsylvania is eighty-two hundred, which would give a net income to the State of Pennsylvania of forty-one thousand and fifty dollars. Secondly, the number of beauty cultural operators in the State of Pennsylvania is twenty-five thousand one hundred twenty-five, which at two dollars per operator would give a net income to the State of Pennsylvania of fifty thousand two hundred and fifty dollars. Third, the number of students and apprentices is estimated at forty-five hundred, which at one dollar each would make forty-five hundred dollars. Fourth, the number of schools in the State of Pennsylvania at this time are fifty-two, and the cost per school, which is twenty-five dollars, would give us thirteen hundred dollars. In conjunction with this there are ten thousand five hundred and fifty manicurists in Pennsylvania, whose license fee will, at the regular amount of two dollars make a total of twenty-one thousand one hundred dollars. In other words, the total receipts amount to one hundred eighteen thousand two hundred dollars per annum. The cost of the administration of this bill is estimated to be thirty-five thousand dollars. The total receipts for the biennium would be two hundred thirty-six thousand four hundred dollars, or with the cost of administering of thirty-five thousand dollars taken off, the net biennial profit to the State of Pennsylvania is two hundred one thousand four hundred dollars. I want to say to you, members of this House, that a revenue today of two hundred thousand dollars is not an amount to receive meager consideration. It represents a lot of real honest-to-God money. It is too bad that we don't have a lot more revenue measures such as this, where the people are willing to pay for their privileges, particularly in this day of depression and the burden of taxation is upon all our people.

I appeal to you, ladies and gentlemen of the House, to give to the women of Pennsylvania that protection which you have given the men of Pennsylvania. It is healthful and sanitary, and that is all the act provides for, that they shall register and that they shall be free from communicable and contagious diseases, both themselves and the establishments where such treatment is administered.

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, we in Allegheny County who know the eminent doctor and appreciate his personality, his mental qualities, his honesty, that Chesterfield of manner, that Beau Brummel of attire, his make-up, his deportment, his appreciation of arts, culture and beauty, are astonished that he, of all men, should place that priceless thing, woman's beauty, on a cold commercial basis. We are told that men are made but little less than angels, but when I hear the doctor doing such a thing as he is now proposing to do, I am sorry for the angels.

Woman's beauty, woman's charm, that upon which great artists have poured forth their souls, that which has caused poets to pour forth their most beautiful language, that which is man's innermost inspiration and ideal, woman's beauty. Man has retrograded, man has gone back, but, from the day of the cave, woman has continually gone up, up the mountain of achievement, until today we have placed her on a pedestal and have become idolaters to her charm, her beauty and her magnetism, and yet you, doctor, by mixed regulations would send her back, back for a few paltry dollars. Has the quest for funds so dulled his brain, so stilled his pulse, has it so dimmed his eyes to woman's magnetic charms? Why, my dear men and women, is there a man so craven in this House, so fallen, so aged, so blind to supeme beauty, to that which we all admire, to the smile, to the rosy cheek, to the flashing eye, to the pearly teeth, that he would vote to approve such a measure as this.

Ladies and Gentlemen of this House, what do they propose? Only to become some kind of—to use confectionery language and the fifteen cent words they use to cover it—become some kind of a beauty artist. Little Minnie Smith of Mansion House up on Main Street at No. 7, has performed miracles with curls in Annie Jones' hair, must go to Philadelphia or the great city of Pittsburgh and spend two years in training to become sufficiently perfect to curl hair, to add a little wave, to pluck an eyebrow, or to make the cheeks a little pinker; two years in one of these beauty colleges. For how much, nothing? Her parents must pay all her expenses in order that she may become a beauty artist. That is all right for the girl in the big city, but what about the girl in Highland Avenue, what about Annie Govalesskie, McKees Rocks, who lives up back of the boiler works. Must she go to a high priced beauty artist when next door to her lives Annie Smith who for a few pennies in her home which is decent and clean and under home conditions can curl her hair just as well.

Doctor, Doctor, where have we fallen, that we should place woman's beauty on a commercial basis, where you would destroy the charm and magnetism, the countless things, for a few paltry dollars. Men, no, never, never.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise at this time particularly because I happen to be a bald-headed man. That is a self evident fact. While it is not any shining memorial, it may be a mortal thing. Before proceeding on the merits of this bill I will have to inject, with your kind indulgence, a personal story. They say it really takes a philosopher to laugh at his own bald head, and I have a particular story that is pertinent to the present discussion, and I am going to inflict the telling of that tale on you. In all of the history that I have read from the earliest time, I have yet to find a man who willingly lost his hair. I stand before you as the exception to any one in modern history, and I did it out of cold, calm, deliberate sentiment for a woman. When I left home as a boy, the last words my good mother—and may God be good to her who has passed on—said to me, "Jim, some day I know you will come out on top," and I didn't want to disappoint my mother.

I regret exceedingly to get into this discussion between the brilliant and eminent doctor from Allegheny County and that glorious silver crowned patriot, who has used the expression of Doctor Eliot himself in describing beauty, and putting beauty below all financial preferment. My friends and colleagues of this House and my friends from Allegheny County, there is something more than mere facetiousness in this bill. There is a real honest necessity, and by the way, I am not looking for any free treatment whatever like my friend, Mr. Witkin, because it is utterly impossible to wave my hair. I say this seriously to you, my friends. The art of the hairdresser and the art of the beauty parlor, as we know it today throughout the length and breadth of this land, not alone in Pennsylvania, but all over the whole world, is an absolutely new and intricate industry that has a lot of money invested in it. You would be alarmed if you knew the number of pretty boys who have their hair curled, so that I am not only speaking for the ladies, but for the weaker half in this modern civilization. There is a good deal of money invested and involved in that business.

There is unquestionably a goodly amount of intricate machinery in these establishments, and an operator of such machinery is quite liable to and quite possibly may do serious damage. If you can by proper regulation on proper statutes derive a revenue from the license, an item which my friend from Allegheny has mentioned, and which is no small item, I say seriously you should do it, particularly since the women of that craft, and the women of that profession, and the women of that activity, have come here and asked for that, and asked us to place this regulation on their shoulders by taxation for the protection of themselves, and the community at large; because this profession is universal in the past twenty-five years, for within the memory of the members of this House it has become a universal trade unknown twenty-five years ago, and it carries with it a good deal of responsibility in the practice of their profession.

I ask you to vote for this bill, and by doing so, support my friend from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, in his words and in his financial arguments, and at the same time paying all due respect to my silver-haired friend from Allegheny, Mr. Quinn.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. I desire to call attention to the words of Section 14 of this bill, "Examiners and Inspectors. The Department shall call to its aid any person or persons of established reputation and known ability in the practices for the purpose of conducting an examination, inspection and investigation of any and all persons, firms and corporations affected by the act. Such person shall receive for his or her services the sum of ten dollars for each day actually employed in the discharge of his or her actual duties, and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of such duties." Under this section the department has absolutely unrestricted power to spend every dollar it takes in under this act. I think this act should be voted down.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. I will, Mr. Speaker, briefly.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the gentleman to quote as reading from Section 14?

Mr. ANDREWS. That is what I understand from the bill on page 10, Section 10 it used to be, 14 I take it now.

Mr. STEEDLE. Was the gentleman quoting from Section 14 on page 14?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I was reading from Section 14.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will read it again, he will see it is in brackets and removed.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I am reading Section 14 on page 10.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, may I again ask the gentleman if he will repeat the objectionable features that he finds in Section 14?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, as I read the bill, the section gives the department the unrestricted power to employ as many persons as examiners, and so forth, as it may desire, paying them ten dollars a day, and without any restrictions whatsoever as to the number of persons employed and without any restrictions upon the expense account.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for the benefit of the gentleman from Cambria, the Department of Health, like every other department that comes under the administrative government are not going to surcharge this department with an unlimited number; they are going to hold it within the confines of any regulatory number, and whose salary shall only be ten dollars a day, for which they perform said work. It is on the same proposition as the Barber Bill was passed. No one was abused by the Barber Act, and I am sure no one will be abused by this act. Again I ask you to vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. NEGLEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up from page 17 of today's calendar, House Bill No. 1080, Printer's No. 138 bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Negley.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1080, entitled:

An Act to amend section two thousand four hundred and seven of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 177), entitled, "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, board, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards, and commissions shall be determined," by requiring the Department of Property and Supplies to insert certain stipulations in specifications for contracts for lubricating oils.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Butler, Mr. Negley, the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentlemen from Butler, Mr. Negley, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. NEGLEY. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TURNER. I would like to ask the sponsor of this bill to explain its provisions.

Mr. NEGLEY. Mr. Speaker, this bill requires the purchasing department of the State of Pennsylvania to buy Pennsylvania Producers Lubricating Oil.

Mr. TURNER. On page 5 of the bill it says "Pure Pennsylvania Oil that is lubricating oil produced from petroleum taken from the oil belt commonly known as the Pennsylvania oil belt."

Mr. NEGLEY. Yes.

Mr. TURNER. Is that Pennsylvania oil belt located solely within the State of Pennsylvania?

Mr. NEGLEY. No, it is not.

Mr. TURNER. Does the Pennsylvania Oil Belt include West Virginia, Ohio and New York?

Mr. NEGLEY. Parts of them. They produce a certain grade that is comparable with our Pennsylvania oil.

Mr. TURNER. And that is pumped into Pennsylvania and it is sold as one hundred per cent?

Mr. NEGLEY. It is.

Mr. TURNER. Has the gentleman any idea of the number of men employed in the oil fields of Pennsylvania, producing one hundred per cent pure oil?

Mr. NEGLEY. All the oil men would be producing one hundred per cent. Pennsylvania.

Mr. TURNER. Has the gentleman any idea of the number of men?

Mr. NEGLEY. No.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would be the last person to stand here and oppose any measure that required the purchasing of Pennsylvania products. I do think, however, that we cannot isolate Pennsylvania, and that when it comes to building a wall around Pennsylvania to provide that we shall only buy or sell within the Commonwealth, Pennsylvania products that that is something which reacts against us. It is not sound business. But this measure is not on that basis. This measure does not only include products from the State of Pennsylvania, because as the gentleman has said the Pennsylvania oil field includes parts of West Virginia, Ohio and New York.

I come from the southeastern part of Pennsylvania, as you know, from the county of Delaware, and in the county of Delaware and in the county of Philadelphia are great oil refineries. There are employed in these refineries and in the work there by the oil companies some twenty-one thousand men, more men I am credibly advised than are employed in these oil fields of Pennsylvania, and may I say to you that in our district there has been no cut in the wages of these men working for these oil refineries, that they have been steadily at work, and they have provided the back bone of employment in the community. This measure is a bill which, while it looks on its face to be for the benefit only of Pennsylvania, reacts against that part of the state which is employing thousands of men, which contributes millions of dollars in taxes to the state of Pennsylvania and millions of dollars to the gasoline fund for your highways.

I therefore ask you to vote against this bill.

Mr. NEGLEY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House what Mr. Turner has said in part is correct, but I do not believe that there are more men employed in the refineries at Philadelphia who work on other oils than the Pennsylvania oils, than work in the oil fields of the State of Pennsylvania. This bill will not build a wall around the products of Pennsylvania and shut out other states. This measure is simply a measure to use the best grade of oil this country or any other country produces. There is no country that produces an oil comparable to our Pennsylvania oils, and up until now I question whether we have ever sold a drum of oil to the State of Pennsylvania. I feel that these men ought to be fair to the producers of oil in the State of Pennsylvania, and will vote with us on this measure.

Mr. Turner here presented tonight a resolution to use stone from the State of Pennsylvania, yet he excepts its oil. I do not think that is fair.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not like to impose upon the House further, but the gentleman has referred to a resolution that I introduced. That resolution only asked the Federal Government to give preference in Pennsylvania to granite because granite is produced here; it does not say Pennsylvania granite alone because granite is produced in twenty-two states of the Union against one where lime stone is produced.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I only want to say one word. I think that our oil industry that pays taxes to our Commonwealth should be preferred over outsiders. The oil, I think my friend speaks about, comes from Mexico, and I would ask you to protect Pennsylvania against Mexico.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, March 13, 1933.

Resolved (if the House of Representative concur), That the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, hereby authorize and direct the Insurance Commissioner during the period of the economic and financial emergency now existing, and until such time as he shall declare such emergency to have ceased, to issue such needful rules and regulations respecting the conduct of business in this Commonwealth by Insurance Companies under his supervision, to suspend any provisions of the insurance laws in whole or in part, and to impose any condition upon the conduct of business by any insurers which may be necessary or desirable to maintain sound methods of insurance and to safeguard the interests of policyholders, beneficiaries, and the public generally during such period.

Further Resolved, that the action of the Insurance Commissioner during the present emergency in issuing rules and regulations is hereby confirmed and ratified.

Further Resolved, that the General Assembly hereby declares its purpose forthwith to enact suitable legislation more fully to effectuate this resolution and to authorize the Insurance Commissioner to take further action in conformity herewith.

Further Resolved, that this resolution shall be effective immediately upon its approval by the Governor.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that that resolution authorizes the Insurance Commissioner to suspend any insurance law? That is what I understood the clerk to read.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the resolution the second time.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think the second reading verifies my hearing of the first reading.

This resolution authorized the Commissioner of Insurance to suspend any insurance law. It seems to me that that is going pretty far. It may be necessary, in view of the emergency, to suspend specific laws. We have had other resolutions in here for that purpose, and I have supported and voted for them, but to give him blanket authority to suspend any insurance law, and to say that we are going to pass legislation to back up anything he does seems to me to be going entirely too far. There should be some limit to it, we should have some idea what is in mind and how far we are going. I think we should vote on this resolution.

On the question recurring,
Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?
The SPEAKER declared the ayes appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, seventy-seven members voting in the affirmative and eighty-five members voting in the negative the question was determined in the negative, and the resolution was not concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,
Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?
It was concurred in.
Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 336, entitled:

An Act relating to healthful outdoor sports as herein defined prohibiting certain outdoor sports on Sunday during certain hours and also during certain other hours unless a license has first been secured from the municipal authorities providing for referendums to ascertain the will of the electors with respect to certain outdoor sports between certain hours on Sunday providing penalties and repealing inconsistent laws.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, I suppose there scarcely is a citizen of this Commonwealth, from bishop to bartender, who does not customarily, habitually, and, for the most part innocently, break the Sunday laws of 1794. No one is urging the strict enforcement of all the so-called "Blue Laws." What is objected to is their repeal, in whole or in part. Some of them may be obsolete, but it does not follow that because they are obsolete therefore they ought to be revoked.

The supporters of this measure decry "Puritanism" and "religious intolerance," and contend for the right of the municipality to determine for itself what State laws it will obey and what State laws it will not obey, and demand that the Legislature recognize the right of municipal dictation to the Commonwealth under the gratiating euphemism of "home rule" or "local option." But there is no local option in the enforcement of tax laws, or school laws, or banking laws, or highway laws, or laws for the protection of property and person, which are mandatory in their nature and state-wide in their application.

These laws were enacted by a generation whose political wisdom we applaud in the abstract and repudiate in practice; a generation which was frugal, thrifty, industrious, law-abiding and God-fearing qualities which we profess to admire, possibly because they are so conspicuously lacking today.

I confess to being old-fashioned in my views of Sunday observance. I wish that people would of their own free will and accord foregather in their respective churches one day in the week for the public recognition and worship of Almighty God. I am persuaded that the appalling reign of lawlessness and crime that daily shrieks from the pages of the press and flaunts defiance to every standard of decency and virtue, is traceable in no small degree to the flagrant disregard of the divine injunction, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." The Jew, the Catholic and the Protestant are committed to the sanctity of its principle, and the agnostic and the unchurched, wherever it is observed, share in the quiet enjoyment of its decorum.

This country was discovered, explored and settled, this nation was founded by religious men. The commission of Columbus was from Ferdinand and Isabella, by the grace of God, King and Queen of Castile, and expressed the pious hope that "by God's assistance some of the continents and islands of the ocean will be discovered." The Jesuit missionaries of France and Spain traversed the Mississippi Valley, New Mexico and California, and labored and sacrificed with apostolic zeal. Colonial charters from the crown of England recited the religious basis of their grants. The Mayflower Compact, the Fundamental Orders of Connecticut, the Frame of Government of Pennsylvania affirmed the religious motives of these instruments. Running through the Declaration of Independence, in the constitutions of the various states, in the Thanksgiving proclamations which issue every year from Presidents and Governors, in the proceedings of the courts and in all those official declarations which are the manifestations of the organized public will, there is the constant recognition of the fact that Christianity is the underlying thought of our national life.

Bore a hole one-half inch in diameter in the dykes of Holland, and Holland would be submerged in the sea. You remember the oriental fable of the Arab and his camel. The Arab was parked one night in his tent on the Desert. It gets very chilly at night on the Great Sahara. The Arab was inside the tent and the camel was outside. The camel poked his nose under the flap and said, "O master, my ears are cold." "Very well," replied his master, "your ears may come in." Then said the camel, "My neck is cold." "All right," said the Arab, "there's a good deal of it, but your neck may come in, too." Next the camel complained, "My shoulders are cold," and finally, "My haunches are cold." And before the Arab knew what had happened, he was out and the camel was in.

A good many people want Sunday baseball who have no commercial interest in an open Sunday, but the main forces back of this bill have a substantial profit at stake. They will not stop with baseball or theatres. This is the half-inch hole in the dyke. It is the entering wedge. If this breach is once made the commercial interests will not pause in their assault until the last inhibition upon secular money-making is demolished, and Sunday will have forever ceased to be the "day of rest and gladness, the day of joy and light."

The advocates of this movement quote Scripture and remind us that "the Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath." That is true, and that is the very reason I oppose this bill. A missionary who was trying to induce habits of Sabbath observance among the Indians told them that if they planted corn on Sunday it wouldn't grow. And in that spirit of human perversity which we all understand and share, the Indians immediately went out and planted an acre of corn on Sunday. They hoed it on Sunday and they tended it on Sunday, and because they took such pains with it, when harvest time came it yielded more corn than any other acre on the reservation. Then the Indians had the laugh on the missionary. But the missionary was right in his main purpose, though he made a mistake in his method. There is a penalty for planting and hoeing corn on Sunday—but it doesn't show in the corn; it shows in the men. The corn may grow to its full size, but the men will not grow to their full size nor yield the full return appropriate to the cultivation of human values. The neglect of the higher interests for which the Sabbath stands will show in the spiritual deficiencies of the men and women who have no time or place in the week for the cultivation of reverence, aspiration, and the sense of fellowship with the unseen.

I believe that Sunday ought to be legally preserved from private gain on divine grounds, and that man ought to be legally protected from unnecessary labor on humane grounds. Sunday baseball and Sunday theatres, and bye and bye Sunday everything else, will compel a lot of people to perform unnecessary labor on the Sabbath day in order to provide excess profits for somebody else who refuses to be satisfied with six days' net receipts. One day's rest in seven is a physical, mental and moral necessity. The French Revolution abolished that ratio and substituted one day in ten. But France was glad to return to the seven day week, attesting the economic sanity of the Mosaic ordinance, "Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work."

In offering this gratuitous affront to the religious sensibilities of the church-going people of Pennsylvania, the sponsors of this bill are committing a serious political blunder. The church people on the whole are indifferent to political corruption, neglectful of their political duties and disinclined to concerted political action. They pray "Thy Kingdom come," but ignore the ballot as a possible means of accelerating its approach. They demand better men in public office, but they stay at home on election day. That is the reason why the politicians do not take the church people very seriously. But there are enough of them to revolutionize the State if they want to do it. Pass this bill and they will do it. Passive and acquiescent as a rule, they are invincible if aroused and marshalled. This whole liberal Sunday movement in my judgment is morally wrong, socially undesirable and politically inexpedient.

If the Senate of Pennsylvania would avert the wrath of a friendly constituency who are slow to anger but who may not always prove plenteous in mercy; if it would retain the confidence and approval of conservative men and women whose attachment to a divinely ordained and time-honored institution is deep-seated and sincere; if it would preserve to the Commonwealth the virtue and the conscience of the past so long embodied in this venerable symbol of the righteousness that exalted a nation, let it heed the admonition uttered by Solomon three thousand years ago and reiterated by millions of Pennsylvanians today, "Remove not the ancient landmarks which thy fathers have set."

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President and my fellow-citizens: You have had the pleasure of listening to the very able and talented discourse on the Sunday Laws by the distinguished Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince. He has quoted first the exploration of America. During the meeting of the committee last week he went back to Abraham and Isaac, and it was brought out at that meeting that the custom of those days in the observance of the Sabbath and the giving glory to God was a service that was near and dear to them. It seems that Abraham saw a ram entangled in the bushes, and he took this as the word of God that he should not slay his son Isaac and decided on the ram. From that time on it was a sacrifice of the animal. We come on down through those ages until we come to the time of Christianity. Jesus Christ came forth with a new era of religion, and practiced it for thirty-three years, and gave an illustration that has been carried down for the last two thousand years, a change from the sacrifice of the animal and changed it to merely appealing to God either on your feet or on your knees, that God was a God of Love. We come down through those ages, and we see the progress which was made by Christianity.

When the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, speaks of the exploration of America we have in mind Massachusetts, where they persecuted people because they believed what they did not believe. That was wiped out. We came down to the year 1794, when an act was passed which made it impossible to do anything on Sunday except matters of religious worship. That has been adhered to, and there is nobody in this room but that will grant that in the last two hundred years there has been a change in the people. But there has been no change in God or religion. The organizations have changed. Today we are populated in the State of Pennsylvania by ten million people. There is no question that religion is a powerful influence in Pennsylvania. So far as I am personally concerned, standing up here speaking on this measure, there is no man or woman standing within the hearing of my voice who has more respect for Almighty God than I have; and I have raised a family of seven children who are able to give testimony of that. But when it comes down to preventing them from going to see a Sunday baseball game and to sit down and look, it is all right. If we were to live in the green fields of Cumberland county and in the beauty of the hillsides and mountains and dales, it would be different. But I am asking you to think of the man in Philadelphia, with a population of two million people, covered with factories, mills and every possible means of making a living, the man who does not go to work daily when times are normal, and in all probability will lose his position. What is the good of denying him the privilege of going on a Sunday afternoon to a baseball match to watch talented players. It is true they are too often ridiculed for what they do. But when the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, says that Sunday is intended for rest, is it not rest when a man can get away from his toils and troubles to look about and see somebody else doing something he is unable to do?

Every man among us knows that baseball is the national game. It is played on Sunday in every state in the Union except Pennsylvania, and here it is denied us. I think it is proper that I speak to you here in behalf of my district. It has a population as great as any in Pennsylvania. A man who lives on Eighteenth Street and wants to go out on Sunday and see something he cannot see during the week. Is there anything wrong in that in the sight of God? I want to call your attention to the fact that going back a little in the Bible we find that Christ was called to heal the man with dropsy on the Sabbath, and in those days they found fault with him and said he was violating the Sabbath; and he turned and said "Which one of you who has an ox or an ass fall into the pit on the Sabbath and would not go to his rescue?" How many of you go through Pennsylvania, and where a shower is coming up the farmer does not go out and gather in his rye and oats and wheat that he may save them from the rain? If that is permitted under the State laws, why not allow these men in the city to go out and see a baseball match? I live in a district as God-fearing as any in the whole state of Pennsylvania, but we see no harm in playing baseball on Sunday afternoon. We go out into our adjoining districts, and what do we see? Baseball game after baseball game and football game after football game. But down in our city we are denied the right. And I want to say, as far as desecrating the Sabbath and making it an open day is concerned, there is no man will stand on this floor and defend it more than I do. I believe in God and believe in a Holy Sabbath. I belong to a religion that compels me to do it or I would ex-communicated myself—I have no choice in the matter as far as I am concerned. I step over the line and then I am marked. But when you speak of commercialism, those men have a place for amusement, and have a place for people on the ground, and give them plenty of amusement in the way of baseball. I want to say to you, gentlemen of the Senate, I am appealing to you as a Senator from Philadelphia and ask you to give us fair play. Philadelphia is the greatest producer of revenue in Pennsylvania. The people have their rights as well as the people in the country. There is nothing more pleasant than to go by a church and see people going into the church to pay respect to God on Sunday, but there is nothing in the law to stop men from looking at an innocent game and have the privilege and opportunity of getting away from the daily toils of life. Philadelphia is a great contributor to this state. Our two million people are appealing to you. There is nothing that has not been done, not a thing in this bill that has not been done to protect the country and the people of the country. If it passes this House it has to take a second hurdle of getting the approval of the local people before the game can be played. There is a clause that prevents it from going near the churches or any place of worship, and it has to be put up to the governmental powers of the state that they may get licenses before they can play.

I want to say, gentlemen, we are asking for bread in Philadelphia. We have as many churches and as many decent people in the city of Philadelphia as there are in any other portion of Pennsylvania. We make no apologies for the morals of Philadelphia. It ranks with any of the great cities of the nation, as high and clean as any of them; but we do ask that we be given the least bit of pleasure,—that we may go see it; and I may say to you that even if it is passed I shall, in all probability, not go to it. I have been a member of golf clubs for twenty years, and have never stood on a golf course on Sunday. I have observed the day as closely as it can be observed. I am not ashamed, because of the remarks I make here, of my morality. And that is before God. We are asking for bread, and I sincerely hope you are not going to give us a stone.

The common denominator of us all is death, and after death comes judgment; and if I come to stand before the great God on Judgment Day and be condemned because I attended a baseball game on Sunday, may God have mercy on my soul.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, had not Senator Trainer got up to reply to Senator Prince I doubt very much that I would have gotten to my feet today. I realize as strongly as anyone living that in the State of Pennsylvania and in these great United States we are living under a Christian form of government. Christianity must and does rule the United States government. Christianity must and does rule the government of the State of Pennsylvania. And I am one of those of my faith who believe in the rule of the majority. So far as I am concerned, I want to say that whatever is the will of the majority, and rule of the Christian people or this great government, that is the rule that I will follow.

I, for my people, want only that right which is guaranteed to us under the Constitution of Pennsylvania and the Constitution of the United States,—that we shall have the right to follow the dictates of our consciences and follow the religious belief that we believe is proper, under guidance and supervision of the rules of both this great country and the State of Pennsylvania; but when two men of the Christian faith rise on this floor and have different views on the same subject, then I think that I have a right, in a non-religious way, to take part in this controversy. It no longer is a strictly Christian proposition, because the Christian people are divided; and when they are divided I feel that possibly I, being of a different faith, have a right to take a stand and explain my views, and thereby not incur the ill will of any person.

I have heard it said distinctly with a man pointing his finger directly at me in committee, "This is a Christian country."

It is a Christian country, and I follow the dictum. I don't argue this question from my viewpoint on the question of religion, I am appealing to the members of this Senate from a different standpoint. I am appealing to the members of this Senate to vote favorably on this bill,—and why? I am appealing for the young manhood and young womanhood of Pennsylvania. I am appealing to the men in this Senate to support this bill in order that we may point out to them a way to be God-fearing people, a way to learn the distinction between right and wrong; because every young man and every young woman,—I may not say everyone, but the big majority of them, at this day, are violating your Christian Sabbath. They are violating it, and the church people and the ministers and all other persons are standing by and allowing them to violate it. And why this violation? And what does it mean? The youth of America is red-blooded. The youth of America likes excitement. The youth of America likes those thrills; and when it can go out on a Sunday morning, whether it be to golf, tennis, baseball or anything else, knowing in its heart that not only is that particular boy or girl going to have a good day's sport but he or she is going to beat the law,—that is the thing that starts them on the road to be a criminal. I is human, it is the instinct of the American youth to beat that thing which he is not allowed to do; and if my good religious friends will study that from that viewpoint, if they will take away from that youth the right to defeat the law, and say to them, "You don't have to defeat this law. It is no longer a violation of the law. You can go out and do this of your own volition." And I think the result of that will be that many a young boy and girl that don't go to Sunday School on a Sabbath already, will go because they have lost their thrill.

You know, Mr. President, we are a funny people. The Americans are funny people. We Senators are peculiar people. You had an example of it this morning, in this Senate Chamber. Senator Woodward puts a bill in, and he thinks Senator Buckman is going to oppose it; and just out of sheer desire on the part of Senator Buckman to show Senator Woodward he is wrong, he just took the reverse order of things and did the thing that was not expected. That is an example of American youth, although these two Senators are not so young.

Now then, Mr. President, we have in this country of ours Young Men's Christian Associations, we have Young Men's Hebrew Associations, we have Young Women's Hebrew Associations, we have Young Women's Christian Associations we have the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts; and why do we have these institutions? What was the reason for it? It was for the purpose of getting these young persons together in order that they may have active work of some kind, both religious and literary, which will keep them off the highways and byways of life, to keep them out of pool rooms and dens of iniquity, so that their minds shall be occupied and they shall not be loitering upon the streets, and they shall get, at all times, healthy and happy surroundings.

Why was that done? It was done,—the organization of these young people, in order that they might be brought back to a church union that they were growing away from. The church, whether it be of the Jewish faith or the Christian faith, for some reason which I cannot explain, were losing part of the youth of America, and these institutions were formed to bring them back home, to keep them away from the highways and byways of life and keep them away from sin and crime; and they have all been successful to a very large extent.

Why isn't it just as reasonable to expect to take the balance of the boys and girls off the street, who loiter on the street corners and have not been properly trained—or whatever else the cause may be—and, instead of loitering around the back alleys and shooting craps or indulging in similar sports, why wouldn't it be better to allow them to visit a baseball game on a Sunday afternoon, and keep them away from all temptation?

We, in the city of Philadelphia, at the present time, have a mayor who is very liberal minded; and our young boys and girls, although it is a violation of the law, play tennis on Sunday, and play baseball on Sunday in Fairmount Park and in different outlying districts. When he was mayor the first time, in Philadelphia the good Christian people of Philadelphia, in the, I think, Sabbath Day Association, tried to get him to stop these sports. He did not do it, and he still allows it; and he was very, very strongly censured and called to task by these people. But he allowed our baseball games, that still continue. But we have them now, Mr. President, by these young folks violating the law. All we ask is to have these young folks have the same privilege they have now, not as violators of the law or as criminals, but as good, law-abiding citizens.

I have one more thought on this question and then I am through. A good deal—and I don't say this offensively, and I don't want to have anyone think I am saying it offensively—a good deal of the opposition to this bill is hypocritical in a way—and I don't want that to be taken by any of our good church people as being said by me offensively. I go up and down in an automobile from Philadelphia to Harrisburg, and along the highway it is necessary to go through Pennsylvania's grandest county, the one we all speak of in glowing terms wherever we go and whenever we are called upon to speak, and we all remember the great sayings of "The Red Rose of Lancaster"; and at the present time we have the loving memories of our wonderful Lieutenant-Governor and our great Dean of the Senate, Senator Homsher; but, as I go along that highway in Lancaster County, the county from which our Senator Homsher comes—and I know he is going to vote "no," and the members of the Legislature, on the other side of the House voted "no,"—anybody can go along the highway in Lititz, Pennsylvania, and there see, on a billboard, "The Lititz Baseball Club will play such and such a club on next Sunday. Admission twenty-five cents." And yet the members of that county with the proper influence, with the will and desire, no doubt, of the good, religious people, vote against this bill; and they stand by, under their very noses, and allow baseball to be played in Lancaster County for admission; and we in Philadelphia are not allowed to play.

I have one more statement to make, and then I quit. I have made a little study of this proposition, and there is something wrong with the church attending people of this great United States. What that wrong is I am not student enough of the subject to talk about, and I would not want to go very deeply into the Bible and try in any way to cross words with our great Senator Prince, because I know that before I have gotten half way through I would be sunk—he knows so much more about it than I had ever hoped to know; but I do know this, and it is a thing that our good church people of this Commonwealth ought to study out, and find out whether the reason after all is that there is too much law or not enough law.

The general passing average of a boy in school, if he is a very low grade scholar he gets by his classes with an average of sixty-five if he is a high grade scholar he goes off to ninety; but I know this—that the average church going people of the whole United States of America is just forty-four per cent. of the population, and in Pennsylvania only forty-eight per cent. of the population. There is something wrong in the system of having people attend the church. It is the fault of the law-maker or is it the fault of the minister? I am not prepared to answer.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, and gentlemen of the Senate, it may be rather an unusual thing for me, a new member, to address you, but there are times when a member of the Senate wishes to have more upon the record than merely his vote upon a question that may confront him. My attitude upon this question may have been rather peculiar. The proponents of this bill, I think, understand my attitude. I have repeatedly come to the conclusion, not only in this session but in the session of 1931, that an issue of this kind was of sufficient importance to have the vote of the General Assembly upon it. I have been invariably opposed to, and I hope I will continue to oppose, the tendency to permit any legislation of importance to be killed in committee. I have consistently, therefore, striven to get this measure before the Senate of the State of Pennsylvania. I think, however, along the ways I have indicated, that I have always been opposed to the general proposition.

This may be the unpopular point of view to take. I had not thought, if I were to rely, in my own judgment, upon the mere question of the votes to be cast in my own jurisdiction, or upon the number of names that could be gotten upon petitions, that I would, by voting upon this measure, be making, personally, a rather unpopular move; but I am willing to take that chance. I am willing to take it for the reason that I am, perhaps, convinced that upon this proposition vote we should vote "no." I say that with some hesitation, because of the fact that I was born in the city of Philadelphia, and I would do almost anything for the city of Philadelphia, in however humble a way might come to me. I have no malice, and I presume everybody understands that, to the success of the Philadelphia Athletics. I certainly have no hesitation to go as far as I am permitted to go to assist this or any other proposition that comes fairly before the General Assembly for a vote, but I am in accord with my distinguished colleague, Dr. Prince, and for that reason I will not permit this opportunity to pass by without this brief statement upon the records of the Senate.

I rather believe that in these days we cannot follow the theory that because a law is unpopular it should be repealed. I do not agree with the argument that young people will be improved by the repeal of this law. It may be true that my viewpoint is, after all, in a way, measured by my own training back in the hills from which I come. Very frequently I come to find that however old I may become as time passes by there are times, even in the deliberations of the State Senate, when I can with some degree of comfort fall back upon the insistence of grandparents of mine who were rather strict in the observance of the Sabbath. That sort of training has given me, in a very peculiar and entirely personal way, some strength upon which I have been permitted to rely again and again, and upon which, in fact, it is a necessity for me to call very frequently.

If it is true that only forty-four percent of the people of the United States, and forty-eight percent of the people of Pennsylvania, are church going people, when I got that suggestion, with a statement made by Dr. Prince that it might be political inexpedient to pass this bill, then I asked myself the question, "Should we consider the church going people alone in this matter?" There isn't a man in the Senate of Pennsylvania who wants church membership to decrease. I think that everyone of the members of this body want church membership to increase. And I cannot follow the logic that by allowing this bill to pass, the church membership would increase. I also cannot follow the logic that it may be possible that when people are invited to attend baseball games on a Sunday in the city of Philadelphia or elsewhere, that because of that invitation, because of the opportunity to witness perhaps the best of the baseball players in America in action, that that will remove them for several hours from some other mischief.

Frankly, Mr. President, I believe that the question of the observance of the Sabbath is entirely a personal matter. In fact, I would even go so far as to say that on the question of religious liberty, that should be left entirely to the individual, and I mean that. I am not so sure that I would not just as soon vote for the repeal of the entire law, and leave the question of worship or the adherence to a distinct denomination up to the individual. I am not so sure I would not rather follow that logic; but the thing that I, as a very humble individual in Pennsylvania, object to is the making of money out of the Sabbath. I have no objection, anywhere, at any time, to any outdoor sports of whatsoever character, as long as they are clean, as long as they are healthful, and as long as they are conducive to the proper development of society. I do not believe anybody would have such objection. But I do have objection to making a business out of it, and I do make objection to this bill which would allow municipalities to make money out of it. I do not know of any other law on the statute books of Pennsylvania which gives any municipality, or even the State, the right to collect licenses or what-not on the Sabbath. I may be wrong, but what you are doing, if this bill is passed, is making it possible not only in your attempt to pass this partial repealer, to permit sports of a certain kind, under certain conditions, between two and six p. m. on Sunday, but, in addition to that, you are taking out of the pockets of the people money that passes into the coffers of the municipality.

Those of us, after all, who will vote against this bill, are not strictly understood when these statements are made. It is the making a profit on the one day of the week which, some way or other, I still believe, in the face of all public disapproval in the State of Pennsylvania, must be preserved.

I will say, in closing, that the time has come, if it has ever come in the State of Pennsylvania, when we must adhere to the statement made by my distinguished colleague, Senator Prince,—“We cannot let go of the landmarks of our fathers.” It is not only a question of religion. During the past two or three weeks we have all had proof of the fact that we are turning back to those landmarks, not only in Sabbath observance, not only in matters of business, not only in politics, but there is a wave sweeping over the entire nation to turn back to the old landmarks, to say “yes” or “no,” to restore confidence and bring back to the ordinary people of the nation some confidence that those landmarks are still alive; and I am not in favor, as far as I personally am concerned, of letting go what seems to me to be, on our statute books, the most sacred landmark.

Some of us who are attorneys might further enter into a discussion upon the merits of this bill, especially as to its constitutionality; but I would not even if I had the wisdom, call attention to any weaknesses in this measure; I would not, even by any technical argument, try to, if I had the power, remove from this Senate the opportunity to vote “yes” or “no” on the proposition. To me it is now what apparently may be the popular clamor for sports; yes, but that is only half the clamor. We know that the tendencies are to introduce, if they have not already introduced, other bills to open the Sabbath even wider than that; and, if I may use the expression, I am going to “stand pat” on the preservation of the Sabbath. As far as I am concerned, I am going to even set over against the Democratic Doctrine of Home Rule the Ten Commandments.

This is only my personal view; and, of course, I understand that any speeches made in the State Senate will not change one vote either way.

Mr. President, I thank you for your indulgence that I may get my opinion upon the record.

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, I think the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Snyder, has hit the nail exactly on the head. My remarks were passed against a bill to legalize Sunday professional baseball. I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Trainer, with his permission.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Trainer, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator if he distinguishes between a labor of love and a commercial enterprise, and if he can cite an instance where the Founder of Christianity charged a fee to heal a man on the Sabbath day.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, that is very true—He did not, but I might answer the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, by saying that the man who is playing the game of ball is paid no more for his Sunday playing than he would be for six days of the week; and therefore he is not the recipient of any income from it. He is under a contract to play ball for a season.

Now, then, when he plays for the season—and the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, and I, and the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Snyder, speak of the conditions under which we would like to see the game played—how many thousands and hundreds of thousands of people in Pennsylvania are not able to play ball, but they derive the same pleasure from going to see a game, and seeing the skill and ability of the players exhibited, and they simply have to pay a fee to get into it.

Now then, I don't like, and I don't want to get into, any religious argument; but when the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, speaks of the Saviour asking money for healing on the Sabbath day, would it not be fair if we did not take up collections on the Sabbath day in churches?

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

REQUEST TO RETURN NOMINATION

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 14, 1933.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I desire to withdraw my nomination of Clyde L. King, West-town, for appointment as a member of the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which I submitted to you on January 3, 1933.

Doctor King has made it appear that he is opposed to the will of the people of Pennsylvania in the matter of continuing the investigation of the public utilities.

He has also, in the same manner, set himself against the will of the Senate, as expressed in its Resolution of August 18, 1932.

When I appointed him, Doctor King was emphatically in favor of pushing the public utilities investigation to the end, and therefore in full sympathy with the popular will. He has changed, and is so no longer. The public interest requires that he be replaced by a man in full sympathy with the will of the Senate and the people.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon), in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, March 14, 1933

The House met, at 11.00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Grover C. Talbot) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George F. Conner, offered the following prayer:

Father God, we thank Thee for this morning, and as Thy servant David of old, said, "In the morning will I direct my prayer unto Thee, and will look up." We, Thy humble servants look unto the hills, from whence cometh our help. We have learned that the early morning devotion is a tuning fork, by which we strike the keynote for our whole day. May Thy will and ours be done.

Especially bless the Administrators and Legislators of our land today. These Thy servants are confronted with serious problems, almost more than they can solve, and burdens almost too heavy to be borne but then Thou hast said, "All ye that labor and are heavy laden, come unto Me and I will sustain you." Now, dear Lord, grant to this General Assembly, prudence, fortitude, temperance, and justice, that in the framing of policies, and in debate they may be guided by eternal truth and right. To the end, that the people we represent may be happy again, and Thy name be praised. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

Gentlemen:
At the last weekly meeting of the Pottsville Unemployed Union, an organization having a membership of over 400 unemployed men and women in Pottsville and vicinity, a motion was passed requesting the legislature to pass a resolution and suitable legislation requiring the owners of coal properties to either work those properties or to sell or lease them to corporations or individuals that will work them.
A case in point is the present withdrawal of the pumps from the Pine Knot Colliery at Heckersville by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company, leaving the residents of the surrounding townships totally unemployed.
We hope this matter will receive your early and favorable attention.

Signed:

Whereas It is desirable that all public buildings should be erected of durable and beautiful materials in keeping with the dignity and function of such structures and

Whereas Granite is unquestionably the most suitable stone for exterior walls of permanent buildings and

Whereas The quarrying and fabrication of granite has in the past been a source of substantial employment and income in twenty-one states and

Whereas It is apparent from its general use in Federal buildings erected in all sections of the country that undue preference has been shown limestone which is largely quarried and fabricated in one state and

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the United States Senators and Representatives from Pennsylvania be and are hereby urged to secure proper consideration for the use of granite in the construction of Federal buildings in this and other states

Resolved That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives forward a copy of this resolution to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in Congress of the United States and a copy to the Postmaster General of the United States

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 787 (Senate Bill No. 137), entitled:

An Act to amend section four hundred and six of the act, approved the eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 998), entitled "An act for the prevention and treatment of mental diseases, mental defect, epilepsy, and inebriety; regulating the admission and commitment of mental patients to hospitals for mental diseases and institutions for mental defectives and epileptics; governing the transfer, discharge, interstate rendition, and deportation of mental patients; providing for the payment by individual, counties, or the Commonwealth of the cost of the admission, care, and discharge of mental patients; and imposing penalties," permitting sworn statements of physicians in charge of patients to be admitted in evidence in court proceedings for the discharge of patients from mental hospitals

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know if there is some one in the House who can explain to me the meaning of this bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria desires to ascertain if there is any member present who can explain the purpose of the bill.

Mr. McKINNEY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill before the House has been requested by the Courts of Erie County. Instead of compelling a lot of witnesses to appear before the court, the sworn affidavit of an attorney or anybody interested in the case would be accepted as evidence. It very plainly says "permitting sworn statements of physicians in charge of patients to be admitted in court proceedings."

It is a saving of expense to the people who are committed to public institutions. It is a measure that the Erie county courts have requested the Erie county delegation to try to have passed.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I agree with the gentleman from Erie that this might be an economical measure. However, as I read the bill, it is a very vicious piece of legislation. By the very terms of this bill if the doctor's certificate is sworn to and filed with the court it is wholly unnecessary for the doctor to appear before the court and he is not required to appear before the court and be subjected to cross-examination. I feel that such legislation, if this is passed, would establish a very dangerous precedent and I think it should be voted down.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1236, entitled:

A Supplement to an act approved the twenty-sixth day of July, one thousand nine hundred thirteen (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand three hundred seventy-four), entitled "An act defining public service companies; and providing for their regulation by prescribing and defining their duties and liabilities; prescribing, defining and limiting their powers, and regulating their incorporation, and, to a limited extent, regulating municipal corporations engaged or about to engage in the business of public service companies; creating and establishing a Public Service Commission for the regulation aforesaid; prescribing, and defining the powers and duties of such Commission and its officers, including the exclusive power to regulate the construction, alteration, relocation, or abolition of the crossings of railroad corporations, street railway corporations, or other public service companies, and of public highways by the tracks or other facilities of said companies; providing for the ascertainment by the Commission of the expense and damages resulting from such construction, alteration, relocation, or abolition, and for the payment of such expense and damages, severally or proportionately, by the public service companies interested, the State, or municipal corporation concerned, and giving persons whose property is thereby taken, injured, or destroyed, authority to sue the Commonwealth for damages in such cases; providing for the terms, salaries, and compensation of the members of the Commission, its officers, counsel, and employees; prescribing and regulating the practice and procedure before such commission, and upon appeal and judicial review of its orders and determinations by the courts of common pleas; and giving the court of common pleas of Dauphin County exclusive jurisdiction of such appeals in certain cases, and of all injunctions, mandamus, or other appropriate proceedings to enforce the provisions of this act and the orders of the commission, and to restrain such orders, subject to an appeal to the Supreme Court; prescribing penalties, fines, and imprisonment for the violation of the provisions of this act and for the violation of the orders of said Commission; making it the duty of the Public Service Commission to enforce the provisions of the act approved the nineteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, entitled 'An act to promote the safety of travelers and employes on railroads, by compelling common carriers by railroad to properly man their trains,' by amending section nine thereof; repealing the act approved the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, which provided for the appointment of the Pennsylvania State Railroad Commission; and sections one and two of the act, approved the fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, entitled 'An act to enforce the provisions of the seventeenth article of the Constitution, relative to railroads and canals'; and an act, entitled 'To provide the maximum car service charges, including car storage charges, that railroad companies and corporations, or associations, may charge and collect on each car loading, and not unloaded within the free time for unloading cars, and fixing the free time that shall be allowed for unloading cars,' approved the twenty-fourth day of May, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and seven; and the proviso of clause three and the provisos of clause seven of section thirty-four of the act, entitled 'An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations,' approved the twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and all other legislation inconsistent with or supplied by this act," providing for the establishment of joint rates over transportation facilities of local passenger transportation companies in cities of the first class, and transportation facilities either owned, leased or operated by such city of the first class when required by the Public Service Commission; and prescribing and defining the duties of the Public Service Commission relating to such joint rates.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 30, Printer's No. 165, from page 16 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Fitzgerald,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 30, entitled:

An Act to amend section two thousand five hundred and fifty-six of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred thirty-two) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" providing for the fixing of the salary of the city treasurer as collector of city school and poor taxes and for the number and salaries of his assistants jointly by the city council and board of school directors and for payment of such salaries and other expenses in connection with his office equally by the city and school district and requiring the city and school district to pay the premiums on the bonds required to be given to the city and school district.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is not my purpose to burden you with a lengthy speech. I just desire to make a few pertinent remarks.

In the first place this bill is a bill proposed and presented at the instance of the League of Third Class Cities, who in convention assembled voted twenty-three to one to favor this bill.

In the second place I want to state that while opponents of the bill have gone about spreading propaganda to effect its defeat, I should like to read to you the exact amounts taken from the records of the Department of Internal Affairs as to the costs of collection of city and school taxes in some of our third class cities. I do not want to burden you with the entire list, but I have the list here if any member desires to see it. For instance in the city of Allentown it cost $42,093.00 to collect the city and school taxes; in the city of Carbondale it cost $14,961.00 for the collection; Chester, $26,436.00; Easton $20,400.00; McKeesport $15,649.00; New Castle $23,591.00; Wilkes-Barre 25,906.00, not including $4,271.00 in poor taxes. In Pittston $9,616.00, not including $491.00 for poor tax; Reading $38,295.00.

Members of this House, I believe that those figures in themselves suffice for any speech that I might make. The bill that I propose places these men on a salaried basis.

Members have been told that this system is not as efficient as one on a free basis. In order to deny that report I just desire to read some of the actual happenings, the figures of which were made from an actual study by Blake E. Nickelson of the University of Pittsburgh and derived from the Department of Internal Affairs, "In the city of Erie the school taxes are collected by a separate collector who receives a salary of $4,250.00. In 1928 he collected $2,011,730.00 in school taxes and the total expense to the school board was about $15,000.00. During the same year the City Treasurer and his assistants, paid on a fee basis, received $31,397.00 for collecting only $1,797,892.00 in city taxes. It is probable that there were other costs, not included here, in the collection of city taxes.

"It is also interesting to note that the City Commission paid collector permitted 14.1 per cent. of the city tax to go delinquent at the end of the year, while only 4.5 per cent. of the school tax remained unpaid one year after it was levied."

The same applies to the City of Easton, where incidentally 9.4 per cent. of the city tax remained uncollected at the end of the year, as compared with only 3.8 per cent. of the school tax.

My friends, I believe that those figures should suffice. You have heard speeches here about economy. My only plea to you is this, if you are desirous and sincere about relieving the people back home here is one opportunity of doing it, and I plead with you in the interest of the overburdened taxpayers of the cities of the third class to vote in favor of this bill.

Mr. HEFFRON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill, the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Fitzgerald.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Fitzgerald, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FITZGERALD. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEFFRON. Does the gentleman from Erie know what percentage was paid to the tax collectors of the respective cities that he read there?

Mr. FITZGERALD. I don't have that in workable form, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEFFRON. Is it not within the power of the Councilmanic bodies now to reduce it if it is too high?

Mr. FITZGERALD. It is true, Mr. Speaker, that it can be reduced but only one-half, and with the figures that I have shown here, $48,000.00 for instance, it would still leave $24,000.00. However, there does not seem to be any disposition on the part of city councils to do so. With the mutual check of the school board it is more apt to be done.

Mr. HEFFRON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the commissioned tax collector realizes full well that in order to make a fair salary commensurate with the amount of work entailed in the collection of taxes, it is necessary to put forth more than an ordinary effort to keep up the standard of collections. We all realize full well what would happen, even under the present system, if a collector was merely contented with sitting in his office waiting for the taxes to come in. We all know that unless such efforts are put forth by the various tax collectors, the amount of money received by them would not be sufficient to pay much more than their office hire.

I call to the attention of the members of the House that:

No provision is made for the payment of bond for clerks or assistants.

No provision is made fixing the responsibility in case of default or embezzlement by clerks or assistants.

No provision is made for the appointment of a deputy tax collector or collectors.

There are no provisions made for the number of clerks or assistants to be employed by the treasurer, with reference to the limitation or his assistants, or to the salaries to be received by them. An unscrupulous and political treasurer could fill his office with unnecessary political henchmen, merely for the purpose of guaranteeing his re-election, their salaries to be paid from the taxpayers' money.

I come from a third class city where they collected — per cent. of their duplicate last year and if this bill is enacted into law I dare say they won't collect 40 per cent. this year, thereby they will be forced to increase their millage.

I have received no protest on the present system from any of my people, therefore, I ask the members of this House to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not want to take up your time but I hesitate to let those statements go unchallenged. So far as this system is concerned provided for in the bill introduced by me, it is the request of the League of Third Class Cities, representative men sent to that convention who should know what they want.

In response to the remarks of the gentleman from Luzerne when he says it is not efficient, he is casting reflection on the integrity of the elected officials of that locality. I again want to give him some figures. In the city of Easton school taxes were collected by a separate collector who was paid a salary of $5,000.00 a year. In that particular city 9.4 percent of the city tax remained uncollected at the end of the year as compared with 3.8 percent of the school tax.

In Reading the same applies. Only 5.2 percent of the school duplicate was delinquent at the end of the year, as compared with 7.0 percent of the city duplicate.

Now, in answer to that portion where he refers to the bonds, I have not only taken this matter up in the past three weeks with members of this House who are learned in the law, but I again went back to Mr. Fertig who has written me this letter:

Dear Mr. Fitzgerald:

It seems to me that if the city treasurer in third class cities is to be placed on a salary basis, that some provision must be made for the closing up of the duplicate remaining in his possession at the end of his term.

The cities are in the habit of collecting their delinquent taxes somewhat differently from other municipal units, which use the tax return system. Under the latter system, delinquent taxes are returned not later than the first Monday in May in the year succeeding the levy. Where, however, the lien system is used as in the case of cities, delinquent taxes need not be liened until the end of the third year following their levy. This means that three years unsettled duplicates are always in the hands of the city treasurer. Under the fee system the outgoing treasurer has an incentive to close up his duplicate because he is paid a commission on the amount which he collects, but if he is placed on a salary basis, then upon the termination of his term his salary ceases, and he would not be concerned about the collection of the taxes, except for the protection of his bondsman. Unless some such provision is inserted as is now contained in House Bill No. 30, providing for the adjustment of duplicates at the end of the term of a treasurer and the delivery over to them to his successor, it would, in my opinion, become impossible for any treasurer to secure a bond.

The purpose back of this bill is to save money for the cities and the salary which is paid to the city treasurer is for the performance of the duties which are imposed upon that officer. Consequently, he should be obliged for the salary which is paid to him, performs all the functions of the office, including the settlement of old delinquent duplicates which could not be settled by the retiring treasurer on account of the practice in the city, but he would not be required to take over such duplicates until the accounts of the outgoing treasurer are balanced and adjusted.

The clause which has been inserted, I believe will go a great way towards discovering defalcations of city treasurers and prevent the hiding of such defalcations until it is too late to recover. I believe the provision will be welcomed by the bonding companies and probably relieve the present situation to some extent.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I just want to make one more remark and I promise the members that I will then conclude regardless of who opposes the bill hereafter. All the figures I have given you do not include, except where I have mentioned, the poor tax ranging anywhere from $40,000.00 to $200,000.00 per year nor do they include the delinquent portion of unpaid taxes which range from $50,000.00 to $200,000.00. The City of Allentown this year has unpaid taxes amounting to $200,000.00, upon which a five percent. penalty will probably be added. With that thought in mind I again ask of you, if you are in favor of economy, to support this bill.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the matter of the salary of city treasurers in cities of the third class has been an issue in the City of Reading for at least six or seven years. In fact at the last municipal election all parties went on record as being in favor of salary in place of the present fee system. After the treasurer was elected he went back on his pledge and refused to do it but they finally put him in a corner and forced him to accept a salary after a great deal of argument and we were in great danger of having to continue to pay from $20,000.00 to $22,000.00 a year as had been the case before, even though the city paid the minimum required by law.

I can see no reason under Heaven why a treasurer in a city of the third class should receive more salary than that of the Governor of Pennsylvania or that of the Judges of the Supreme Court. Many members are in hearty favor of drastic reductions in the higher salaries fixed by law. If you are going to reduce them, as I think undoubtedly some of them should be reduced, I can see no reason why you should keep a law on the statute books which permits treasurers of cities of the third class to receive a higher salary than the treasurer of the United States gets. I think it is outrageous, unjustifiable and indefensible.

I feel this bill is a good one; I feel it should go even further than it does and include the collector of county taxes in third class cities, which, under the fee system, costs the people of the City of Reading $17,000.00 in addition to what is included here.

I hope you will vote for this bill and help us to remedy the situation by this much at least.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Fitzgerald.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Fitzgerald, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FITZGERALD. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask is it the intent of the League of Third Class Cities to have the tax collecting agencies consolidated.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Yes sir.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Then may I ask why you did not include in your bill the collection of County taxes.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Because that was all the League of Third Class Cities put in the bill. You understand that this bill was drawn up in conjunction with the League of Third Class Cities, Mr. Fertig and myself. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if you will just tarry with me for a moment I will read a letter that explains the gentleman's question.

Legislative Reference Bureau,
Harrisburg Pa., 16 December, 1932.

Hon. Norbert James Fitzgerald, 609 East 22nd Street, Erie, Pennsylvania.

Dear Mr. Fitzgerald:

At a meeting of the Law Committee of the Third Class City League in my office yesterday, the provisions of the city treasurer's salary bill were agreed upon. I was directed to draw the same and submit it to you for introduction. It is possible that I will draw this as an amendment to the Third Class City Code if I find that it can conveniently be done when the school district which is to pay part of the cost is to be taken into consideration.

I just thought this might please you.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) J. H. FERTIG,
Director.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I might say that I, of course, am in favor of consolidating the tax collecting agencies of the cities and counties, but this bill does not do that. This bill eliminates the county taxes.

In the city that I come from, with a population of approximately 35,000 people, we have two tax collectors now, the City Treasurer and the County Tax Collector, who collects city and poor and county taxes. This bill will not correct that situation. This bill goes further, on page 4 starting on line 11 "If at any time the city treasurer shall fail to qualify as collector of school taxes his compensation for city taxes shall be one-half of that fixed in accordance with this act, which salary and all other expenses as hereinbefore provided shall be paid by the city." Any school board that may have a grievance against the city treasurer could find some excuse for not having that man qualify, and would have to select their own tax collector and there is not anything in this bill to provide what his salary shall be, and instead of having two tax collectors in the city of Hazleton we would have three.

I, therefore, am opposed to this bill and ask the members to vote it down.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I shall have to correct the gentleman. There are provisions as to the salary. In the event that he does not qualify he receives but one-half of the salary, and if the gentleman will read the bill he will find that to be so.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having been voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1161, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 667), entitled "A supplement to an act, entitled 'An act for the government of cities of the second class,' approved the seventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred and one, regulating the certification, recording, advertising, and proof of passage of legislative acts of Councils; and prescribing the effect of the production thereof when required as evidence"; by changing the regulations relative to the advertising of the legislative acts of council.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise, much as I regret to oppose this bill sponsored by my good friend from Allegheny, Mr. Spann, for several reasons. I believe that this legislation is being presented to the House as an economic measure affecting the city of Pittsburgh, but I have reason to believe that there are other reasons that this legislation is being presented. The bill specifies, as amending the original act, the publication of ordinances shall appear once in a public newspaper. We in Pittsburgh know that what we need is more light, rather than less light, on public affairs. I don't question that Mr. Spann is sincere in trying to put across a measure of this kind which he thinks is going to be beneficial and save money to the citizens of the city of Pittsburgh, but I have reason to know that for many years there has been a political movement in Pittsburgh to try to prevent as much publicity on public affairs as is possible, and the enactment of this legislation is going to turn off light where light should be turned on. I am asking the members of this House in the interest of good government for the city of Pittsburgh to vote this bill down.

Mr. SPANN. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I appreciate the attitude of my colleague from Allegheny County, Mr. Kane, but I want to say to the membership of this House that this bill is introduced only as a measure of economy for the citizens of the city of Pittsburgh, and not from any ulterior or hidden motive.

This bill, or a similar bill, was passed in this House two years ago, and the bill limits, or rather takes out of the advertisement the unnecessary signatures of public officials to such ordinances. The law now provides for the publication of such ordinances. This amendment would make them published once and eliminates from publication such useless matters as the signatures of the parties signing the ordinances and approving them. It is a measure that is designed to save the taxpayers of Pittsburgh some fifty thousand dollars annually, and I submit to the members of this House that it is worthy of your approval and your affirmative vote.

Mr. SHENKEL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I agree with the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Spann. I believe that the bill of the gentleman from Allegheny, insofar as economic conditions is concerned, is all right. The newspapers are paid a certain amount of money for advertising these different ordinances. I am going to ask the members of the House to support the bill of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Spann.

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I said in the beginning that I believed the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Spann, was sincere in his motive, but I know in Pittsburgh the Republican Organization has been having difficulty with the newspapers, and I know that over three years ago an individual made a proposition to the council and they said that a proposition of this kind could be put before the public, and the public would accept it as an economic measure, and they could probably force the newspapers of that city in line as a result of that action. That individual came to me and asked me as a representative of organized labor in that city, to use my influence with the Central Labor Union of Pittsburgh to try to endorse a publication that he had in mind, which if it would be set up, would get this work if this law is enacted, for it is specified that it shall be advertised in one newspaper. That is one of the motives back of this legislation, and I don't think that the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Spann, knew anything about it. You have to go deeper behind some of these things to find out what is being done behind the name of economy in times like these.

There are citizens and taxpayers in the city of Pittsburgh that are employed by newspapers of Pittsburgh, particularly in the mechanical department that are going to be affected and have been affected as a result of the depression, and are going to be affected more, for legislation such as this is going to curtail advertisements in the newspapers. I say to the Republican members from Allegheny County, that if they are interested in the taxpayers, and it is lately that they have become interested in them, there is a lot of other economies that they can effect that will help the taxpayers' pocketbooks more perfectly than striking at the newspapers and striking at the taxpayers through the newspapers.

I say in all due respect to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Spann, that I don't think he knows anything of the proposition I have mentioned, but I do say that the whole movement back of this thing is a political scheme and not an economic measure in the interest of good government. Again I ask the House to vote this measure down.

Mr. SHENKEL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my friend and neighbor, Mr. Kane, I agree with some of the stuff that he says, but I know that the newspapers of the city of Pittsburgh and all over the country have reduced their forces and cut them down practically to the minimum, and I don't think under their present organization that by cutting out this stuff, that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Spann, suggests it is going to affect labor in any way. They have cut just as close and as hard as they can cut, and they are not cutting down any of their expenses for advertising or anything else. They have simply cut down on labor. I recognize the fact that my friend from Allegheny, Mr. Kane, is a labor representative, but I want to bring to the attention of the members of the House the fact that in cutting out all this stuff, the newspapers have cut down their labor, but they have not cut down the price of advertising. Therefore, I say that we should vote in favor of this bill of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Spann, because it is saving the citizens and taxpayers of Pennsylvania money.

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, a great American once said that if the people like a thing they will find a way. By the same token gag your press, and they will find a way.

Mr. Spann, my colleague from Allegheny County, on the wrong end of the House here, is no doubt the innocent victim of the attempt to punish the press of Pittsburgh for their independence, and in view of what has happened over in the Senate this morning to your liberal baseball law, and anticipating that you will vote in favor of this bill this afternoon, I as a Democrat of the State of Pennsylvania invite the Republicans of this House to be present at the inauguration of the next Governor of this State, a Democrat from Pennsylvania.

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Quinn.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Quinn, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker, I will be delighted to give the gentleman some information.

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny what his business is?

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker, I am a publisher and a printer.

Mr. HOUGH. Enough said, Mr. Quinn.

On the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. I do not think we should pass upon this measure in routine manner without realizing its serious import. It represents a fundamental change in our financial system and tax structure by eliminating millions of dollars at interest now subject to the personal property tax. If we desire at this time to reduce the basis of taxation with the inevitable result that every dollar that we take from the personal property column we place in the real estate column, then of course we will pass this bill. If we believe that real estate is already overtaxed, that all of the sources of revenue are up to the limit, we will vote against this bill.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be re-committed to the Committee on Counties for further consideration or for a hearing.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. RHODES. The reason, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I make this motion is, because of the fact that this bill involves the exemption of property valued at three billion two hundred and fifty million dollars and it seems to me that the importance of the bill is so great that we ought to give some consideration to it. I am not saying I am against the bill, but it has such a wide effect that I don't think we can act upon it intelligently at this time unless we give consideration to it.

We must recognize, as the gentleman from Cambria also said, if we exempt three billion two hundred and fifty million dollars of wealth from taxation at the present time that it unquestionably will mean an increase of taxation upon real estate. I think we are all for a reduction of taxation, but it does not seem to me to be consistent that we should reduce, without serious consideration the tax upon intangible property, the tax upon wealth, when it means a corresponding increase of tax on tangible property or real estate, and it is for that reason I think this bill should be recommitted so we may have an opportunity to have a hearing and give proper consideration to it.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, certainly.

Mr. STEEDLE. Do I understand from the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes, that he led me to believe that this effects three billion dollars worth of tangible property.

Mr. RHODES. Intangible property, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this would exempt interest bearing accounts of three and one-quarter billion dollars according to the estimate of the Department of Internal Affairs, and I have those figures before me showing not only that detail, but the amounts in the respective counties involved in the total which I have given you.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, this act was passed in 1913. From 1913 to 1933, I doubt very much whether any county in the Commonwealth pressed the collection of the tax upon the small savings accounts in the banks of our State.

I admit that three billion dollars is a terrific amount of money, and no doubt the tax return at the rate of four mills would be a splendid return to the State, but I question in my mind whether any county in Pennsylvania enforces the collection of this tax with the full authority that it should.

This bill emanates from a drastic enforcement that came out of the county of Allegheny under the present county commissioners. It was done to protect the small individual depositors and in view of the fact that they have gone and enforced the collection of this personal property tax on this bank deposit tax, if you please, this bill was introduced by the Senator from Allegheny, Senator Einstein.

As an example, a small depositor of four hundred dollars in a bank under the present ratio of interest receives twelve dollars. Upon a four mill tax on four hundred dollars, he is charged with one dollar and sixty cents of tax. On his original four hundred dollars he receives but three per cent. On his twelve dollars, that he receives as a credit from the bank, he pays the State of Pennsylvania thirteen per cent.

Ladies and gentlemen of the House, I am one member who is absolutely opposed to affecting our State revenues, and I should like very much if somebody would tell me the amount of money that we collected in the State of Pennsylvania in the year 1932 on this four mill personal tax, not on property, not on mortgages, not on bonds, but on small deposits in banks or if you please, savings accounts in the banks. I think, personally, that savings accounts in the banks are one of the things that make people thrifty, and here in the State of Pennsylvania it is not the millionaire or the multi-millionaire who has the power of the ordinary working man in the majority and who has the small savings accounts in the banks of possibly four or five or six or seven hundred dollars. Heretofore if anybody evaded paying this tax, it was the wealthy people of Pennsylvania and not the poor unfortunate, and I think that is one way in which we would destroy the thriftiness of the poor man who only receives a small consideration for his labor and his savings.

To substantiate what I have stated that the wealthy of Pennsylvania are the evaders of this tax and not the poor unfortunate, I present to you a picture of two ladies in Allegheny County. One lady by the name of Mrs. Smith and the other by the name of Mrs. J. O. Miller, to whom were entrusted the moneys of an estate, and I read to you from the records of the Board of Tax Revision of Allegheny County:

According to the records of the Board of Tax Revision of Allegheny County, Mr. Julian Kennedy, Mrs. Jennie E. Kennedy, his wife, Mrs. J. O. Miller and Mrs. R. Templeton Smith, failed to make a Personal Property Tax Return at any time. Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Smith being executors of the estate of their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Kennedy.

In 1931 an investigation was made by the Board of Tax Revision and it was found that the estate had considerable stocks, bonds and moneys which were taxable under the Personal Property act.

Stocks and bonds in the total amount of.....$3,625,210.00 consisting of holdings in the following Companies:

Keystone Steel & Wire Co.
Liberty Steel Company
Newton Steel Company (Common and Preferred).
Otis Steel Company (Common and Preferred).
Stanga Coal & Coke Co.
Toledo Furnace Co.
Trumbull Steel Co. (Common and Preferred).
Trico Products Co.
Virginia Coal & Iron Co.
Youngstown Sheet & Tube Company.
Lago Oil & Transport Co.
Pan-American Petroleum & Transport Co.
Savings Accounts.....	167,835.00
	$3,792,045.00

On the above amount they were billed for a total tax in the sum of $16,980.01 for the following years:

	1925	1926	1927	1928	1929	1930
Tax.....	$1,138.20	$2,028.82	$2,012.32	$2,298.34	$3,462.14	$4,232.36
Int.....	352.84	507.20	382.34	298.78	242.35	42.42
Total..	$1,481.04	$2,536.02	$2,394.66	$2,597.12	$3,704.49	$4,276.68
Making a total tax of	$15,172.18
Total Interest	1,825.83
	$16,998.01

The above was not taxable from the passage of the Act in 1913. However, the Board was not permitted to tax back that far due to the fact that Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Smith were not responsible for payment of the tax beyond 1925; otherwise, the tax would have amounted to approximately $100,000.00.

This tax was paid by personal check made payable to the Treasurer of Allegheny County and signed by Mrs. J. O. Miller and Mrs. R. Templeton Smith, who at the time payment was made were very anxious to have these facts kept out of the newspapers. The records show they made no return from 1913 to 1931, at which time they were compelled to make a return by the Board of Tax Revision.

I reiterate that this tax is a poor man's payment and I say to the ladies and the gentlemen of the House that we should not entertain a motion to refer this bill back to any committee, but that we should act on it now and that we should pass this bill and relieve the burden of taxation on the little fellow. It is he who generally pays and the wealthy dodge whether it is by statutory limitation or otherwise and I trust, ladies and gentlemen, that you will vote this motion down.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. RHODES. Did I understand the gentleman from Allegheny to say that this tax went into the State revenue?

Mr. STEEDLE. This tax?

Mr. RHODES. Yes.

Mr. STEEDLE. The tax was paid into the tax revision board of Allegheny County by a treasury check of Allegheny County.

Mr. RHODES. It is not a State tax, as I understand you?

Mr. STEEDLE. No. I beg your pardon if I so quoted.

Mr. RHODES. Does the gentleman from Allegheny feel that we should exempt all of these people who have millions and millions of dollars, subject to this tax and are able to pay it?

Mr. STEEDLE. The act in itself provides such exemption shall only be from five thousand dollars down. It does not affect the big man above the bracket of five thousand dollars. This is helping to defend the little fellow, and that is the man I am pleading for, not the man of wealth or the woman of wealth, nor the evader of taxes, but the man who pays the tax, who is the poor, unfortunate working man.

Mr. RHODES. Is it not true that this is an exemption of interest bearing deposits whether they are one hundred dollars or one hundred million dollars from this tax?

Mr. STEEDLE. Up to five thousand dollars.

Mr. RHODES. Will the gentleman from Allegheny point out to me where there is any exemption whatsoever set forth in this particular bill?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I so understood and probably I did misquote. When the bill was introduced it provided for five thousand dollars. I have the sponsor of the bill to my right, Senator Einstein, who was so informed by Mr. Fertig over in the Legislative Reference Bureau. I believe that the exemption could not be so applied owing to its endangering it, and probably declaring it unconstitutional, and the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes, is right when he so stated at first.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not think that any of us have any objection to alleviating the tax burden upon the small individual whether he has money at interest or whether he owns real estate, but when we pass this bill we are not only exempting the individual who has money in small amounts at interest, but we are exempting the individual who may have one hundred thousand or a million dollars at interest, and who will thereupon pay nothing towards the expenses of our governmental affairs, and that burden will inevitably revert back to the small property owner who is now unable to pay his taxes upon his real estate. In other words, you are going to penalize when you pass this bill the small home owner and the small farm owner in favor of the wealthy millionaire and the man who has millions and in the various banks of this Commonwealth. As I have said, there may be some merit and there may be some means whereby we can work out what the Senator from Allegheny County has in mind, and what the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle has in mind, and it was, therefore, that I suggested that we send the bill back to committee, because of the fact that it involved an exemption from taxes on three and a quarter billion dollars, and it is a serious proposition.

It is going to have a great effect upon the people of this Commonwealth if it is passed and we should not do it hastily.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman move to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed on third reading.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be re-committed to the Committee on Counties.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the members that the merits of the bill are not debatable under a motion to recommit, and therefore, if it is desired to discuss the merits or demerits of the bill the suggestion from the Chair is that the motion to recommit shall be withdrawn for the time being.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I feel that the bill has been discussed on the present motion. Personally I did not desire to raise any objection, because I was willing to have the bill discussed in conformity with the rules of the House so long as there was no objection.

I press for my motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on Counties for further consideration or a hearing.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for another day. Be with us and bless us in it, and help us to learn the lesson which Thou are teaching, not only through history but everything, that strong, rugged men and women are made the same as the eternal rocks in these mountains by storm, stress and tempest and upheaval. Grant that out of this period of upheaval in our country strong, rugged characters may be made to do Thy work and to do Thy will in the world. Be with the members of the Senate today as they go to their homes. May they find their loved ones well; those who are sick minister to them. We ask in Christ's name. Amen.

Dear Lord, our Father in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. We saw Thee wash the world last night, and this morning we pray that Thou wilt cleanse us of all sin.

As we gather in this legislative hall, and stand a moment in silence, we are yet conscious of the din of clamorous voices from the people of our Commonwealth, but we hush all voices, that we may hear the still small voice from within.

Breathe Thy calmness upon our fevered spirits, give the light of Thy countenance to guide us amid the bewildering problems of our day. May our Speaker and the ladies and gentlemen of the House, be inspired to face the urgent needs of the present and immediate future with dauntless courage, and brotherly compassion for the discouraged and baffled multitudes. STATEMENT BY MR. STERLING

Mr. STERLING asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this morning's "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette" runs a news item of a labor relief plan offered by a distinguished Pennsylvanian, Mr. Kaufmann, of the city of Pittsburgh.

The news item states in detail a most comprehensive work relief program, and advises us that Mr. Kaufmann has contacted with the important and the influential officers of the Federal Government and that his plan is now receiving serious consideration.

Pennsylvania has received more R. F. C. relief than any other state in the Union. Pennsylvania doubtlessly is a fertile territory for experimentation of any good relief plan, and it has occurred to me that Pennsylvania should lose no opportunity if the plan submitted by the distinguished Pennsylvanian is one that will prove itself worthy of consideration.

We have a capable Unemployment Relief Committee, composed of representative membership of this House, and it seems to me that this is the opportune time for the House to authorize all or a part of the membership of that committee to place itself in close contact with the officials of the Government, with proper authority of the House, so that if the plan develops to the extent that it might be acceptable to the United States authorities, the position of Pennsylvania might well be projected through the representation in Washington of the Unemployment Relief Committee of this House.

Legal questions will doubtlessly develop if the contact is made, and for that reason it occurs to me also that a representative of the Department of Justice might very well accompany the representatives of this Unemployment Committee of the House.

These thoughts that I have expressed are to be presented to you in the form of a resolution, for the presentation of which I yield to my colleague, Mr. Rice, of Dauphin county.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman will be spread upon the Journal.

RESOLUTION

AUTHORIZING SUB-COMMITTEE OF UNEMPLOYMENT TO ATTEND UNEMPLOYMENT CONFERENCE

Mr. RICE asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted.

In the House of Representatives, March 15, 1933.

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby authorize a sub-committee of two of the Unemployment Committee to go to Washington, D. C., to confer with the governmental authorities in an effort to procure coordination between the government of the United States and this Commonwealth to effectuate a permanent work relief program and that the Attorney General be requested to send a deputy from his office with said Committee to advise the same on all legal matters.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF MEETING OF UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF COMMITTEE

Mr. RICE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to announce that there will be a meeting of the Unemployment Relief Committee immediately after the adjournment of the House.

The SPEAKER. The members will govern themselves accordingly.

UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF PLAN

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, inasmuch as the plan submitted by Mr. Kaufmann is printed at length in the "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette" of this morning and in order that the plan may become a permanent record in the archives of the House, I move you that the same be printed at length in the Legislative Journal.

The motion was agreed to.

THE PROBLEM

Thirty per cent. of the total working population of Pennsylvania is unemployed. Four hundred thousand families are on dole relief, representing approximately 2,000,000 souls. More are anticipated. There is no longer any shame or stigma in going on relief.

It is estimated that about $120,000,000 a year will be needed to supply these families with the necessities of life. Able-bodied men, willing to work, are permitted to remain idle and receive a dole. This is frozen labor.

And further we must face the solemn fact that there is not enough tax-paying ability in the country to continue to carry on the burden of relief as it now is, and as it must grow to be, as more and more people exhaust their savings and their resources. The only concrete escape from such a situation is in setting the wheels of industry in motion by a Labor Relief Program.

The Program—The Nation and Pennsylvania's Problem During the Past Years of Re-adjustment

The problem has been dealt with by attempting to make vocational occupation through the creation of public and semi-public work for frozen labor. This effort has been unsuccessful due to the lack of funds. It was found expedient to use available money for dole, rather than for work and materials. Concurrently, there was brought about a moratorium for improvement and repair work on private and corporate property of all description, due to the freezing of capital and credit. Therefore, it is solely a problem of developing a program of work, credit and finance.

It is recommended to gradually divert the steady flow of governmental money advanced by Federal and State funds from dole, to be applied in payment for work to be performed and materials to be used by the existing frozen labor.

Such a Labor Relief Program will bring about the following advantages compared to the present Dole Relief System:

Work

(a) State-wide rehabilitation through work performed by frozen labor on private and corporate properties, in cities as well as through farming sections; conditioning buildings, equipment, farm lands and forests.

Or else, under the dole, gradual disintegration and decay of these private and corporate properties, brought about by present frozen currency and credit.

(b) A $200,000,000 Fund advanced for such a rehabilitation program, secured by ten-year liens of the properties improved. $120,000,000, of the above, represents wages for the frozen labor now on relief in the State.

$20,000,000 (estimated) of the money spent for raw materials by the manufacturer will be paid to labor (not on relief) by the raw material distributor.

Or else, under the dole, $120,000,000 paid as dole to frozen labor on relief for the basic necessities of life.

(c) Labor permitted to work and earn.

Or else, under the dole, frozen labor increasing, denied the opportunity to work, receiving dole and remaining idle.

The Plan

The Labor Relief Program is suggested in order to utilize the resources of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation or other governmental agencies that may be created by the new administration for loans against secured contracts.

At the State and Federal Employment Offices, established where needed, a Contracting Bureau consisting of an Order and Estimating Department, a Credit Department, and a Legal Department will be set in operation.

The Order and Estimating Department of the Contracting Bureau will receive the application for desired private or corporate rehabilitation work or improvement.

The type of work performed may range over a wide field affecting dwellings, gardens, factories, machinery and equipment, farm lands, farm buildings, farm equipment, roads, reforestation, etc.

On application, an estimator will be sent to inspect property to be affected and determine the following:

1. Number of workmen needed and the estimated time that they will be employed according to vocation.
2. The current wage by occupation in that locality.
3. The nature and quantities of materials required for the execution of the work.
4. The local price for these materials.

After estimating the cost of labor plus the cost of materials needed, an additional percentage will be added to cover overhead of administration.

This estimate approved by the applicant is then sent to the Credit Department for investigation.

The Credit Department will determine the credit standing of the applicant by a formula that must be developed, determining the credit allowable in each case, the same to bear relation to the property improved and the existing encumbrances.

The private applicants must certify their inability to pay in cash. The corporate applicants must certify that the payment of cash for improvements requested would seriously impinge on the working capital of their corporations.

It must be paramount that this Plan should not compete in any way with local labor, industry or banking.

The application will then be referred to the Legal Department.

The Legal Department is to arrange a contract between the governmental agency and the applicant.

The contract will provide the government with a 10-year obligation secured by a lien on the improved or re-habilitated property, which lien may be liquidated, monthly, yearly or at the end of the 10-year period.

Interest is to be paid by the applicant at a rate to be determined by the governmental agency and guaranteed by the State of Pennsylvania through biennial appropriations.

In case interest is paid by the State, it shall be subrogated to the right of the governmental agency to that extent.

The contract executed and released will permit the Employment Bureau to requisition for labor and the Order and Estimating Department to order materials.

The Employment Bureau will register the vocation of those on relief applying for work as well as their immediate home needs, their dependents, and their general living conditions. This frozen labor, when working, will receive a wage rate comparable to the wage paid that trade.

It should be the goal of the Federal and State Employment Office to supply all applicants with sufficient employment to assure them the reasonable necessities of life.

The clerical and administrative employees at these headquarters will be selected from the unemployed on relief. They will be paid a salary comparable to the local wage rate. They will be given sufficient work to provide them and their families.

Estimators and other office employees handling funds must be bonded, and legislation should be passed protecting the government by a penalty; of fine or imprisonment or both against fraud or embezzlement.

Statistics

The relief statistics used herein are based for the most part on the report made by Arthur Dunham, February, 1933, to the Public Charities Association of Pennsylvania.

It is estimated that the 400,000 families, representing 2,000,000 souls, now receiving dole in the state of Pennsylvania require approximately $120,000,000 a year. This necessary $10,000,000 a month is greater than the tax-paying ability of the tax payer. An estimate of total funds used for relief in Pennsylvania (including cost of administration) during December, 1932, was reported as $8,400,000, of which $6,800,000, or 81%, came from state and Federal funds. This sum did not fully or adequately care for the families then on relief. At the present time $10,000,000 monthly would barely provide the 400,000 families. It is, therefore the Government's duty to set the wheels of industry in motion and unfreeze this frozen labor, because—neglecting this, the tax-payers will find themselves facing confiscatory taxation.

Had this plan been in effect for the past year the saving in state appropriations would have been $14,000,000; since the Talbot Acts allowed $22,000,000 and the interest charge on the $200,000,000 considered herein is only $8,000,000 annually, based on four percent interest, which may be reduced or possibly eliminated.

The Plea

The Government is urged to recognize fully its position and obligation to its unemployed, those on relief, and those as yet not on relief,

- to its now genuinely suffering workmen,
- to its large and small manufacturers,
- to its large and small retailers,
- to its real property owners and
- to its already overburdened taxpayers.

Long term obligations on property, actually improved, are vastly preferable to an ever-increasing burden of taxes for relief.

The work dollar is a more potent and better dollar than the dole dollar. This Plan, if adopted, on a national scale will stimulate construction, the heavy industries, equipment manufacturing, automotive, transportation, both consumer marketing and industrial marketing, and render frozen labor self-supporting.

Both the unemployed and the taxpayer look to Washington for constructive measures that will render their lot tolerable. The only cure for unemployment is employment. Dole relief is at best an expensive bromide to relieve the hopeless suffering of that large group within its boundaries.

The Government through a construction program, financially sound, can set the unemployed to work, rehabilitate disintegrating property, and protect its over-burdened taxpayers.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 336 (HOUSE BILL No. 1)

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 336 (House Bill No. 1), entitled:

An Act relating to healthful outdoor sports as herein defined prohibiting certain outdoor sports on Sunday during certain hours, and also during certain other hours, unless a license has first been secured from the municipal authorities; providing for referendums to ascertain the will of the electors with respect to certain outdoor sports between certain hours on Sunday; providing penalties and repealing inconsistent laws.

was defeated last Tuesday, March 14th.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I voted "no."

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I voted "no."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I desire first to read a statement I gave to the newspapers last Wednesday night.

At no time did I change my attitude on the bill to license outdoor sports on Sunday. At no time was I favorable to the bill in the form in which it was presented or amended in the Senate.

Those with whom I discussed the matter were familiar with my attitude. I have always felt that the regulations proposed by the bill should be limited to baseball and football.

But my principal objection was that I did not believe it proper to make any change in the "Blue Laws" until the people of the whole Commonwealth had an opportunity to vote on the question. This safeguard the bill did not provide. True, it provided that outdoor sports should not be legal unless a license was first secured, but it had no provision for a referendum until the municipal election in November, 1933, and in the meantime the entire Commonwealth could have been open to outdoor sports by the action of the counsels of municipalities without the consent of the people. I believe the people are entitled to determine for themselves whether they want baseball and football on Sunday, and if the people of the whole State are in favor of such a measure I have no objections to granting to municipalities the right to license such sports if the people of each municipality express themselves in favor of it.

Mr. PRESIDENT, the bill which was before us last Tuesday localized Sunday baseball. It provided that a referendum should be held, and placed the burden upon those opposed to Sunday baseball of securing a petition prohibiting it in the future. I have, on my desk, amendments which, if this bill is reconsidered, I propose to offer, providing for a State-wide referendum, and, at the same time, and at the same election, the vote for or against this State-wide referendum in the different municipalities will be considered as a final vote in the particular municipality covered by the vote.

This provides two safeguards. This is a fair way of presenting this controversial question to the people of our State; and I now ask consideration of it by the members of the Senate, so that this bill can be reconsidered.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, last Tuesday I voted against the Schwartz Bill, or House Bill No. 1. It was said my vote had been influenced by someone. I wish to state on the record that my vote was cast against this bill through no influence by anyone. I considered the bill on its merits. I considered that it was not proper to open up Sundays in this State without first giving the people an opportunity to vote on this legislation. I considered that part of the bill which provided for the licensing of amateur athletic contests a ridiculous provision, and for that reason and that alone I voted against the bill.

I have stated, on numerous occasions, to people who have called on me, opposing any change in the Sunday "Blue Laws" that I felt that this was a question which should be submitted to the people by a referendum. I stated, and I now state, that in view of the fact, which we all know to be true, that throughout this Commonwealth, throughout my entire district, baseball is played on Sunday without any objection being heard. In many instances admission is charged. And so, as I say, I stated to those who came to me that I thought it would be much better, if the municipalities in the State wished the "Blue Laws" amended to permit healthful outdoor activities, for the people to be given a chance to say so. The bill that was voted on last week in this Senate did not so provide, but permitted, as the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, says, outdoor sports on Sunday throughout this Commonwealth immediately, and put the burden on those who object to it, to bring about the referendum; and that I do not think is right.

I understand that the amendments which the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, proposes to offer, if the vote on this bill is reconsidered, will provide that the people of the entire State shall determine whether they wish to modify our "Blue Laws" to the extent of permitting baseball and football on Sunday afternoon.

I understand that the amendments also will abolish the provisions in the other act requiring that those engaging in outdoor activities on Sunday which might be called athletic contests be licensed.

And so, Mr. President, I second the motion of the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, to reconsider the vote by which this bill was defeated on final passage.

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, if the Senate had passed the Schwartz Bill, and the Sunday observance forces proposed a popular referendum to try the issue over again at the general election, I would be against such a motion, as I shall be against this, and for the same reason,—because it is inconsistent with the principle of representative government.

The Constitution vests in the General Assembly, as the legislative representative of the people, elected for the purpose, the power to enact laws for the Commonwealth. The Senate has refused to commercialize the Sabbath by sanctioning Sunday professional baseball. To re-open any question which the Legislature has already settled, by asking the public to assume the Legislature's responsibility, would impair the dignity of this representative body and would weaken its delegated authority.

I have no desire to defeat the popular will, but under our form of government the popular will is expressed through the acts of the Legislature. The Sunday Sports question is our problem, and if the people are not satisfied with the way we have handled it they may have an opportunity to secure a reversal of our judgment by putting it up to the candidates at the next election of Senators and Representatives to the General Assembly.

Mr. MCCLURE. Mr. President, I want to call to the attention of the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, that half the Senate are elected every two years. The term is four years. This method of a referendum which I have proposed provides a method by which the people can determine for themselves, next November, whether they want Sunday baseball and football. No fair-minded person can object to an open referendum on a question of this kind.

We realize that when we are candidates there are numerous issues before us, of conflicting interests, and no one question is ever definitely settled.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I have listened quite attentively to all the Senators who have spoken here tonight. The Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, has said this question has been definitely settled. I do not agree with him. I have had the good luck, in my lifetime, to attend many sports events. Sometimes two men will cross the tape, in a running match, breast to breast. Sometimes, in a boxing match, you see the referee go that way (indicating). That means a draw. This contest tonight is a draw,—and a doubtful draw, because the House, by a large majority, passed this bill and the Senate, by one vote, said "no". The House said "yes"; the Senate said "no." It is a draw. The only way to solve the problem is to let the contestants try it over again.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. THOMPSON and Mr. CHAPMAN and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—26

Armstrong,	Frazier,	McClure,	Shapiro,

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, on August ninth, 1932, in our Special Session, I arose on the floor of this Senate on a question of personal privilege, and in looking over what I said at that time I find it covered a couple of pages. I do not propose to go into any extended speech. I understand that this session is to close on the thirteenth day of April. Everybody will be happy and contented if we go home on the thirteenth day of April. But in order for us to go home on the thirteenth day of April and attend to our other vocations in life, it will be necessary for this Legislature to pass some very important legislation, which up to the present has not seen daylight. Something must be done, and must be done quickly. The outstanding question of the day in Pennsylvania is emergency relief. The outstanding question of the day in Philadelphia is emergency relief, and we from Philadelphia cannot go home, nor will we agree to go home, until some substantial legislation is passed in this Legislature for the benefit of those in want. The time has come when there must be activity, and I am pleading to the members of this Legislature, not in behalf of the unemployed, not on behalf of the widow and orphan in our town, but I am pleading to this Legislature on behalf of the people who are employed in Philadelphia and the people in Philadelphia who are willing to pay the freight. They want this legislation because they know that God Almighty has been fair to them, and they want to divide that fairness with their fellowmen. And the reason I am rising at this time is because, if this matter is allowed to go on and we do adjourn on the thirteenth day of April and the necessary legislation is not in shape to take care of the people in Philadelphia, we will be too late, and I am extremely anxious.

Now, I am finding fault with no one, with those who have charge of this legislation, no matter who they may be, whether it be the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, or the Governor of Pennsylvania, whether it be those who have charge of the administration of affairs in Philadelphia or in Pennsylvania, or whether it be the individual Senator or Representative. I am asking of them that at this time they get together and offer some sort of substantial legislation that is going to inure to the benefit of this Commonwealth. And I want to say to them now that, if by this time next week we do not have some such legislation on the calendar, Philadelphia will come to Harrisburg with its own legislation and insist that that legislation be passed. We do not care to do this, but something must be done, and those in need, particularly in the congested districts of Pennsylvania, must be taken care of. I know that there is an effort being made, and I think that all the people in interest are trying to do something; but the people are becoming uneasy, the members of the Legislature are becoming uneasy, both in the House and in the Senate. We want to see the handwriting on the wall in order that we may know where we stand, and particularly the members of the House and Senate from Philadelphia want to know what the State of Pennsylvania is going to do for Philadelphia; and we don't propose to be the football of politics or anything else.

I thank you.

BILL ON SECOND READING

HOUSE MESSAGES

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO THE DEATH OF HONORABLE JACOB MATHAY

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 20, 1933.

The House re-assembles tonight, stilled and sobered by the consciousness that the Honorable Jacob Mathay will not be here.

For six Regular and three Special Sessions, he toiled as a member of this House, giving freely of his strength and his knowledge for the best interests of the Commonwealth.

Amiable always and courteous, he won and held the admiration, the good will and the friendship of those with whom he labored in the State's business.

His serious attention to his duties finally won for him the appointment as Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means of this House, as a deserved recognition of his long service and marked ability.

His outstanding honesty, integrity and rectitude won for him an enviable position in the practice of his profession, and he commanded the respect and admiration of both bench and bar of the County of Philadelphia.

For many months he endured with high courage and outstanding bravery, all unknown to his associates, a nervous condition that filled his days with suffering and his nights with sleeplessness.

He carried on and smiled and performed the serious task that life had brought to him when pain racked his body and worry drove reason far afield.

Rest and quiet and cessation from work, might have brought relief, but he would not quit. Duty held him fast, and to the performance of the work of the position to which former service had entitled him, he gave his every effort without thought of cost to health.

With only the thought of service to his fellowmen in mind, he drove the frail body that housed his determined spirit far beyond the breaking point, it refused to travel on, and now that frail craft is no more; therefore be it

Resolved, That the death of the Honorable Jacob Mathay will deprive this House of the valuable part his experience and ability played, in the framing and passage of important legislation, that those who know him best will most miss his help and friendship, and that the district he represented and the City of Philadelphia will be deprived of the benefit of his wisdom and wise counsel; and be it

Resolved, That we extend our deepest sympathy to the wife and daughter who shared his home, and for whom his going creates a void that nothing can fill, and brings a sorrow, that no act or word of ours can assuage; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House to the widow of said Jacob Mathay, and that information of its passage be forthwith messaged to the Senate.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move that the resolution be adopted.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), that Senate Bill No. 186, entitled "An act to amend sections one two three four five six seven eight nine ten and eleven of and to add section twelve to the act approved the twenty-sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine (Pamphlet Laws fifty-six) entitled 'An act enabling the banks of this Commonwealth to become associations for the purpose of banking under the laws of the United States' by extending the provisions of said act to trust companies or banks and trust companies applying the provisions of said act to trust companies which have heretofore proceeded thereunder and fixing an effective date therefor,"

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George F. Conner, offered the following prayer:

O God, our merciful heavenly Father, we give thee our unfeigned thanks for the continuance of our lives, and our unimpaired health that we may serve Thee and the people of our great Commonwealth, another day. The joy of our meeting on Capitol Hill is marred tonight, by the oppressive shadow of a great tragedy; our colleague and friend, Jacob Mathay, will not answer to the roll call tonight, or ever again; he has left us for the land from which no traveler ever returns. His untimely departure leaves us shocked and disconsolate. Dear Lord, have mercy upon the soul of our departed comrade, and in Thy infinite pity, comfort his wife, and daughter and the host of his sorrowing friends, smitten and overwhelmed with the greatness and suddenness of their sorrow. Sustain them in their great loss and grief.

Protect our land from whatever threatens her welfare.

Give the spirit of wisdom and godly fear to our Speaker and the Ladies and Gentlemen of this Legislature, and all officers and others connected with the government of the people. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF DEATH OF HON. JACOB MATHAY

The SPEAKER. The Chair announces with profound sorrow the death of the Hon. Jacob Mathay, a representative of this House from Philadelphia County, the twenty-second district.

RESOLUTION

EXTENDING SYMPATHY ON DEATH OF HON. JACOB MATHAY

Mr. LONG offered the following resolution which was twice read, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 20, 1933.

The House re-assembles tonight, stilled and sobered by the consciousness that the Honorable Jacob Mathay will not be here.

For six regular and three special sessions, he toiled as a member of this House, giving freely of his strength and his knowledge for the best interests of the Commonwealth.

Amiable always and courteous, he won and held the admiration, the good will and the friendship of those with whom he labored in the State's business.

His serious attention to his duties finally won for him the appointment as Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means of this House, as a deserved recognition of his long service and marked ability.

His outstanding honesty, integrity and rectitude won for him an enviable position in the practice of his profession, and he commanded the respect and admiration of both bench and bar of the County of Philadelphia.

For many months he endured with high courage and outstanding bravery, all unknown to his associates, a nervous condition that filled his days with suffering and his nights with sleeplessness.

He carried on and smiled and performed the serious task that life had brought to him when pain racked his body and worry drove reason far afield.

Rest and quiet and cessation from work might have brought relief, but he would not quit. Duty held him fast, and to the performance of the work of the position to which former service had entitled him, he gave his every effort without thought of cost to health.

With only the thought of service to his fellowmen in mind, he drove the frail body that housed his determined spirit far beyond the breaking point, it refused to travel on, and now that frail craft is no more: therefore be it

Resolved, That the death of the Honorable Jacob Mathay will deprive this House of the valuable part his experience and ability played in the framing and passage of important legislation, that those who know him best will most miss his help and friendship, and that the district he represented and the City of Philadelphia will be deprived of the benefit of his wisdom and wise counsel; and be it

Resolved, That we extend our deepest sympathy to the wife and daughter who shared his home, and for whom his going creates a void that nothing can fill and brings a sorrow that no act or word of ours can assuage; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House to the widow of the said Jacob Mathay, and that information of its passage be forthwith messaged to the Senate.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. On the question of adopting the resolution the members will arise, face the West and remain standing until the fall of the gavel.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The Chair wishes to state that Memorial Exercises in honor of our deceased members will be held at an early date.

Whereas, The tax imposed under the provisions of the act, approved the nineteenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (P. L. 92), entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing an emergency sales tax for State purposes upon sales of tangible personal property by vendors, as herein defined; prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax; and prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax; and providing penalties," will be due and payable on the first day of April; and providing penalties," will be due and payable on the first day of April; and

Whereas, Persons subject to the payment of such tax have, by reason of the financial depression, been unable to collect moneys due; and

ENDORISING PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO CONSTITUTION OF UNITED STATES

Mrs. WILSON offered the following resolution, which was twice read and laid over under the rules.

In House of Representatives, March 20, 1933.

Whereas, Under present law practically every measure for the advancement of the interests of the workers must be fought out in each of the forty-eight states and when a victory is won there is danger that the Supreme Court of the United States will declare legislation for the protection of wage earners unconstitutional and

Whereas, In order to abolish this condition there is being advocated an amendment to the Constitution of the United States known as the "Workers' Rights Amendment" which if adopted would permit Congress and the several states to enact social welfare legislation, and which reads as follows:

Article XX

Section 1. The Congress shall have power to establish uniform laws throughout the United States to regulate, limit and prohibit the labor of persons under eighteen years of age, to provide for the relief of aged invalided, sick and unemployed wage earners and employes in the form of periodical grants, pensions, benefits, compensation or indemnities from the public treasury, from contributions of employers, wage earners, and employes or from one or more of such sources and generally for the social and economic welfare of the workers in the United States.

Section 2. The power of the several states to enact social welfare, legislation is unimpaired by this article, but no such legislation shall supersede abridge or conflict with any act of Congress under this article: Therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Legislature of Pennsylvania endorses such proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States and urges upon the members of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the United States the passage of the same; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be forwarded by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to each member of the House of Representatives of the United States from Pennsylvania and to each of the two United States Senators from Pennsylvania.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 566

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 16, 1933.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed a resolution of the House of Representatives and Senate, recalling from the Governor, House Bill No. 566, Printer's No. 51, for the purpose of amendment.

Accordingly, the original bill is herewith returned.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

Mr. McELWEE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication together with the bill, be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, last Monday night the Governor addressed a joint session of the House and Senate ostensibly on the emergency that would exist were no moneys appropriated by the Legislature to carry on unemployment relief for the months of April and May.

He took the Legislature to task for inaction and failure to give heed to the needs of the unemployed. He used the occasion to tell the Legislature what it must do on unemployment relief and also to repeat some recommendations which he had made for legislation to increase the income of the State for the coming biennium.

Much of this was a repetition of what he had said in his address to the Legislature at the opening of the session and his budget message.

The Governor evidently forgets that the constitution provides that the Senate and the House comprise the Legislative body whose function it is to enact the laws. While the Legislature should always be willing to receive the suggestions of the Executive, suggestion is one thing but demand and intimidation are another.

Notwithstanding the fact that I pointed out that the Unemployment Relief Committee of the House had for a number of weeks been working on a program that would not only include appropriations, but work relief, and notwithstanding the fact that this report was submitted to the House on Tuesday, together with a bill providing for appropriations covering the months of April and May, the Governor on Friday took occasion to state to the people of Pennsylvania that the Legislature was more concerned with Sunday baseball, beer and jobs, than it was with unemployment relief.

As so much of the Monday night message was taken up with a repetition of his former messages outlining legislation which he suggested, one can not help but come to the conclusion that he seized the occasion to get in before the Rice Report and get over propaganda for his plans in order that he might divert attention from the efforts of the Legislature to reduce the cost of government which the people are demanding.

In reference to appropriation of money for unemployment relief there are some questions which I should like to ask the Governor.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not speaking on a question of personal privilege as interpreted by the Speaker earlier in this session.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I say in reply to the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, that the rules are that a member may rise to a question of personal privilege when the integrity of a member or of the legislature is attacked. I construe the remarks of the Governor in a statement made during the last week as an attack upon the integrity of this body. I therefore feel that I am within the rule.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to read under a "question of personal privilege" House rule number 67. Questions of personal privilege are first those affecting the rights of the House collectively, its safety, dignity and the integrity of its proceedings. Second by, the rights, reputation and conduct of its members individually in their representative capacity only.

The Chair is of the opinion that the point of order by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, is not well taken.

The gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner will proceed.

Mr. TURNER. He has emphatically said to us that it was taking $6,000,000 a month for unemployment relief. That would mean $12,000,000 for the months of April and May. He knows that the expected surplus at the end of the biennium will be $1,500,000 and that the constitution prohibits our creating an indebtedness of more than $1,000,000 beyond the revenues. Therefore, this Legislature could not appropriate more than $2,500,000 for the two months, leaving a balance of $9,500,000 which would have to come either from the Federal government or from other sources. In no instance has he pointed this out, nor advised whether we can expect to receive $9,500,000 from the R. F. C. As he is the person designated by the Federal Act to handle the R. F. C. money, why has he not ascertained this fact, and frankly stated it to the Legislature and to the people.

In addition, according to a newspaper article appearing on Saturday of last week, there is an unexpended balance of $9,000,000 of R. F. C. money which, together with $2,974,429 for the month of March, makes a grand total available for relief of $12,000,000. If these facts be true there is no need of further appropriation by the Legislature for the months of April and May, and sufficient money is on hand to take care of this.

It is deplorable that the Governor of a great Commonwealth like Pennsylvania should hold before the needy of the State the picture of starvation and incite them to riot and bloodshed. Let us contrast this with the fine action of the President of the United States in urging an optimistic outlook. The Governor stated that there was only about enough to carry on for ten days of this period while if the figures above stated are true there is ample according to his own figures of the requirements to provide money for April and May.

If one will study the Governor's messages and statements, it will be found that he has asked for $20,000,000 for unemployment relief but in no place has set forth whether this $20,000,000 is for the biennium or for a shorter period. Does he propose to have us appropriate $20,000,000 in the belief that it is for the biennium, and then go before the people, say it is inadequate, and that he had no intention that the money was for that period. Is this to be a vehicle for a special session which he tries to hold up before the Legislature as a bug-a-boo?

To date the R. F. C. has loaned Pennsylvania $26,955,446 besides the $2,974,429 promised for March. The State has appropriated $22,000,000, making a total up to April 1st of $51,929,875. This is a staggering sum and must lead the Legislature and all thinking citizens to ask the question as to what the end will be.

The Governor should, therefore, give us a concise and accurate statement of the exact standing of the relief funds and as to the amount which he is asking the Legislature to appropriate and the term for which it is to be appropriated.

Knowing that the House had submitted a program and had introduced a bill which would carry $20,000,000 in relief for the next biennium, as well as $2,000,000 for the next two months, in spite of the above unexpended balance of $12,000,000 said to be available, one may reasonably inquire why the above statements condemning the Legislature were made to the people of Pennsylvania by the Governor last week.

The reason may be found in the other statements in reference to increasing revenues and the fact that the Sterling Committee Report was made on Monday night proposing reductions in personnel and appropriations, as well as functions of the State government. There was also a skillful illusion to House Bill No. 22.

Behind this smoke screen on unemployment relief the Governor sought to maneuver and to reduce the interest of the people in the cost of government by throwing mud at the Legislature's relief efforts.

House Bill No. 22 sets up the frame work of government, and is a specific piece of legislation known as the Administrative Code. Upon it can be erected all economy program. It deals with the setup of the departments and their powers and duties. If we are to have economy a check must be put upon bureaucracy. President Hoover said that Democracy must continually fight the spread of bureaucracy to exist. Bureaucracy is fighting, and with the cooperation of the Governor and his paid propagandists, will fight its curtailment. Bureaucracy means more jobs, and the Governor is interested in jobs.

The Sterling Committee report, which is a fine contribution brought forth after months of intensive work by a joint committee of the House and Senate, deals with a wide variety of subjects beyond the Administrative Code.

The Joint Committee of the House and Senate, known as the Fay Committee, has incorporated in House Bill 22 those recommendations of the Sterling Committee which are covered by the Code insofar as the joint committee has approved. This work has in no way infringed upon the splendid work of the Sterling Committee, which recommends cuts in appropriations, shifts of functions, reduction of personnel, etc. The Sterling Committee, I am informed, has many bills to carry out its program, which I am certain from my study of their report will meet with the hearty commendation of all those earnestly endeavoring to economize.

The following administrative expenditures of State government, including school, hospital, and other subsidies, but excluding expenditures made from the proceeds of road bonds for State highway construction, should be of interest when considering the question as to reductions in the cost of government.

For the Fiscal Year 1914 to 1915.....	$34,745,000
For the Fiscal Year 1919 to 1920.....	57,200,000
For the Fiscal Year 1925 to 1926.....	87,534,000
For the Fiscal Year 1927 to 1928.....	112,743,800
For the Fiscal Year 1931 to 1932.....	166,588,000

Looking at these figures are you not convinced that the taxpayers are going to believe that the Legislature can reduce the cost of government by many millions?

The Governor offers no plan of reduction, but asks for change in the collection of taxes and the enactment of certain laws which will increase the revenues. If revenues can properly be increased by better methods they should be. But we must be sure that the methods are better and reasonably certain that an increase will result.

But if I sense the opinion of the average citizen, he wants the cost reduced no matter what the revenues may be. That is our problem and our function. The Executive can cooperate and help to cut the cost I am certain that we will welcome his co-operation.

But let us not be deceived and let us not be intimidated into following false scents drawn across the trail to economy. We have set our course to reduce the cost of government. The attempt of the bureaucrats and the selfish interests who are trying to prevent our accomplishing our end, will be to divide our forces and to create dissension among us. Let us keep a united front and we will have the backing and endorsement of the taxpayers of this State.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, if I am not out of order, I would like to move to refer this bill to the Committee on Law and Order for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would ask you to oppose and vote down this motion. This bill is commonly known as the convention for repeal bill. It is the legislation that is necessary to set up the convention that will ratify or refuse to ratify the proposed amendment with reference to National Prohibition.

This bill originates in the Senate, where it had full consideration and was passed with very little dissent.

It was referred to this House about three weeks ago. It was referred to the Elections Committee, where again it was considered by that committee and reported to this House favorably.

Tonight I have offered on behalf of the sponsor of the bill and a large group who are interested, amendments that will clarify the bill. There has been some misunderstanding with reference to some of the provisions of this bill, which

I hope to clarify to the House when the bill is on third reading and final passage.

At this time I merely want to suggest in opposition to the motion, that this is very necessary legislation and it ought to be disposed of by this House without delay.

I ask you that the motion be defeated.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, it is not my purpose to occupy much of your time in the discussion of this bill known as House Bill No. 23 for a referendum on Sunday amusements of all types.

Some four or five weeks ago, we passed a bill known as the Schwartz Sunday Baseball bill. It seems that this bill has had a lot of trouble on the other side of the House.

The Schwartz bill provided that the Blue Laws were immediately repealed for the purpose of enjoying all kinds of Sunday outdoor amusements, except boxing and wrestling.

This bill, ladies and gentlemen, goes further, but it holds sacred to the people of the various municipalities the observance of the act commonly called the Blue Laws until such time as by vote of the municipality they shall determine for themselves whether they desire the repeal of that part of the Blue Law.

It provides that the next municipal elections there shall be a ballot and in the preparation of that ballot there shall be sections numbering five. Each section provides for a particular vote by the electorate whether they desire one or all of the many provisions of the bill.

In number one, do you favor the legalizing on Sunday of games, sports, amusements and entertainment of all kinds and types which are legal on other days. To the right of that question are two words set off in blocks: "yes" or "no."

The second one refers to the legalizing on Sunday of outdoor sports and games, such as baseball, football, tennis, golf, swimming, and so forth for which an additional fee is charged. Likewise appearing in blocks to the right of that question are the two words again: "yes" or "no."

Third, do you favor legalizing on Sunday, outdoor games, such as baseball, football, tennis, golfing, swimming, and so forth at which no admission is charged and again there appear the same words, "yes" or "no."

Fourth, do you favor legalizing on Sunday indoor sports, games, amusements and entertainments such as dramas, comedies, motion pictures, operas, vaudeville concerts, and so forth, for which an admission fee is charged. Once more appearing in blocks: "yes" or "no."

Fifth, do you favor legalizing on Sunday indoor sports, games, amusements, as before stated at which a collection may or may not be taken. The question is again asked of the electorate: "yes" or "no."

Ladies and gentlemen of the House, I say to you that this is one of the fairest programs of legalization on sports of all kinds and amusements on Sunday, and it lies within the choice of the municipality, its own electorate, to say whether they want such a privilege or not. It repeals no existing law, but it does repeal the existing law after the people of the district have so decided for themselves by a vote.

That is the very same provision that caused the Schwartz bill to meet with opposition in the Senate. The question there arose that there was no provision made for a referendum. It was absolutely an abolition, a repeal of the Sunday Blue Law. This, my friends, gives to them the privilege and the right, the constitutional privilege inherent within themselves to say whether they want to repeal or do not want to repeal.

Therefore, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I appeal to you to vote favorably on House Bill No. 23.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I desire to rise in opposition to this bill. I am sorry to have to appear before this House again in the role of an objector, but I see no other way.

By inheritance, by nature and by choice I am a booster and not an objector. I would rather vote "aye" on a bill than vote "no." I am an optimist rather than a pessimist, but before I am asked to boost anything, I want to be convinced it is worth boosting, and before I vote "aye" on a bill I want to be convinced that the bill should pass, and if I am asked to be optimistic, I want something to be optimistic about.

I have been told by my colleague that when I read a bill and understand what it is about before I vote for it, that I am all wet, not anti-prohibition, but that I am all wrong, but I am not convinced yet that I am wrong. I have read this bill, and it looks to me as though it were either an amendment or a repeal or substitute for those old Blue Sunday Laws that we have argued so much about, and I want to say right here and now that those old Blue Sunday Laws don't need a repeal or an amendment or substitute when they have stood for one hundred and forty-nine years, and this as it now stands is the answer as to whether it is a good law or whether it is not, and, therefore, it needs no substitute.

This bill does not call itself an amendment, but it must be one of those three because it attacks those old Blue Sunday Laws, and I object to it for three reasons. I object to it first, because there is no occasion for it; second, because it is so complicated that an ordinary electorate would not know how to vote on it. It is more complicated than the amendment to the School Code. Here are five questions, one right after the other, that the electorate is supposed to answer, and when the members of this House themselves, with all their intelligence, cannot any more than just answer one question at a time, how do you suppose the electorate are going to answer intelligently the five questions placed one right after the other.

I also further contend that this law is class legislation; it is only in favor of the few people who own stock in amusement parks or some other kind of recreation, and all of that old sentiment about the working man needing that recreation is now nothing but a memory. The working man don't need recreation, he needs work, and if these Good Samaritans who are so good to the working man, if they will substitute this Sunday recreation for one day's work and pay the working man for it, I will vote to suspend the Sunday laws during this depression.

I hope, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that you will not vote to amend or repeal or substitute the old Blue Sunday Laws in favor of the few stockholders in recreation parks.

Mr. SHORTZ. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEEDLE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SHORTZ. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in order to clarify this question, I desire to ask, does not Section 10 carry a repeal of the Act of 1794, the repeal to be effective on January 1, 1934?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Shortz, I would say that it repeals it to the extent that the municipality, if this were to become a law, indicates the pleasures of the particular electorate. It repeals that part of it, it makes it operative, it is the mechanics for voting on the kind of amusement you want, whether you want to have Sunday amusements or whether you want football or baseball, and whether you want it with admission or without admission or whether you want it with or without collection. It must by itself carry certain provisions of repeal, but those provisions are inoperative until the people have voted.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. RHODES. HOUSE BILL No. 1543.

An Act to amend section five of the act approved the nineteenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (P. L. 92), entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing an emergency sales tax for State purposes upon sales of tangible personal property by vendors, as herein defined; prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax; and providing penalties; extending the period for payment of part of the tax.

Referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

By Mr. TALBOT. HOUSE BILL No. 1590.

An Act making an appropriation to the State Emergency Relief Board for direct relief and work relief.

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Committee on Judiciary Special be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 408, Printer's No. 401, entitled:

An Act to protect the lives and secure the safety and health of the people by making it unlawful to evict persons from dwellings under certain conditions.

said bill having been referred to the Committee on Judiciary Special January 25, 1933.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a motion to discharge the Committee on Judiciary Special from further consideration of this bill. The bill was introduced on January 24th, was referred to this committee on January 25th, eight weeks ago.

I have spoken to the Chairman of that committee repeatedly during that time, and requested action upon the bill, tried every means that I could to get it out of this committee, and have not received any satisfaction.

Two weeks ago this body passed unanimously a resolution declaring that evictions should be stayed until April 3rd, in line with a similar resolution in regard to sheriffs' sales. The purpose of that resolution, which in itself was merely a gesture, was to give the Legislature time to pass an act which would do what the resolution suggested.

This bill has been in the Legislature, as I say, since January 25th. There is a demand for it. Unemployment organizations all over the State are demanding action.

You have stayed sheriffs' sales, but you have not stayed evictions. Unemployed workers throughout this Commonwealth are being thrown out on the street with their wives and children every day. I do not think that under such conditions we should go on waiting, and waiting and waiting. It is time to stop waiting and to act. This committee has had eight weeks to consider this bill, and certainly in that time something could have been done about it. Within the last week or two other bills along the same line have been introduced.

It is time for action, and I ask the members of this House to go on record against the continuance of evictions in this Commonwealth by voting to discharge this committee. Let us do something immediately.

Mr. Speaker I would like at this time to present a petition signed by over four hundred citizens of Philadelphia, which was presented to me yesterday, concerning this bill, and I ask that the heading be read.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks. Mr. Hoopes, presents the following petition which the Clerk will read.

The Clerk read the petition as follows:

We, the undersigned citizens of the State of Pennsylvania, resident in Philadelphia, petition the Committee on Judiciary Special of the House of Representatives to hold public meetings on House Bill No. 408, prohibiting the eviction of any unemployed worker from his dwelling whether for failure to pay rent, taxes or interest and principal on mortgages, and further we petition the Judiciary Special Committee to report the same bill favorable to the House of Representatives.

The SPEAKER. The petition will be referred to the Committee on Judiciary Special.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill was referred to this committee, Judiciary Special, and it has received consideration. At a meeting the bill was referred to a sub-committee for study. The chairman of the committee has worked on the bill, and he is very doubtful whether the bill accomplishes the thoughts and the ideas sought to be accomplished by the gentleman from Berks.

If you will read the bill carefully, you will find that it is very loosely drawn, and the committee has been giving it thought with the idea of amending and possibly reporting it, as amended, to accomplish the results that the gentleman from Berks desires.

The bill is just a little bit too lopsided. It provides that the tenant shall not pay rent. Of course, that is entirely satisfactory to the gentleman from Berks. But how about the old lady that owns the house and has the interest to pay on the mortgage? The gentleman from Berks leaves her out. How about the building and loan association that has the community funds and owns the house? The gentleman from Berks does not relieve it from paying taxes.

There are many flaws in this bill, and your committee has been considering it carefully with a view to clearing up those flaws and with a view to reporting to this House not a loose, an ill drawn and ill considered measure, but a measure that will be worthy of your consideration.

I ask you, members of the House, to give this committee an opportunity to complete its labors.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want, first, to thank the chairman of the Committee on Judiciary Special for the very fine compliment that he has paid me about drawing this bill. He agrees, however, that it accomplishes the purpose which I have in mind.

We want to protect the human right to shelter, and I defy the chairman of the Judiciary Special Committee or any member of this House, no matter how good a lawyer he may be, to draw a bill that will protect both the landlord and the tenant at the same time. I contend that such a measure is not possible. We are faced with an emergency. The thing that we have to do is to protect the man who needs protection most. It is my contention—

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, both the gentleman from Berks and the gentleman from Philadelphia were out of order in that they were discussing the merits of the measure.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will answer the point of order as follows and will read the decision of the House on Point, of Order No. 77: "The merits of a bill cannot be discussed under a motion to discharge. On a motion to discharge a committee from further consideration of a bill, the point of order was raised that the Member was speaking on the bill and not the motion.

"The Speaker decided the point of order well taken and ruled that the merits of a bill could not be discussed when a motion was made to discharge a committee (Legislative Journal May 5, 1931, p. 3067)."

The gentleman's point of order is well taken. The gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, will confine himself to the motion before the House. The bill is in committee and not before this body.

Mr. HOOPEs. I agree that technically the point of order is well taken, but I must say that it is hardly fair to raise it on me after you have allowed the Chairman of the Committee to discuss the merits of the bill.

The SPEAKER. May the Chair explain to the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, that he had no other alternative.

Mr. HOOPEs. I am not blaming the Speaker at all.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want again to urge you to vote for the discharge of this committee. It has had this bill since January 25th.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOOPEs. Mr. Speaker, when did the committee consider House Bill No. 408?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, at its first meeting some time, I think, in the early part of February, and at a meeting held three weeks ago, or two weeks ago when the bill was referred to a sub-committee to consider and to draft amendments, if advisable.

Mr. HOOPEs. Mr. Speaker, why then did the gentleman from Philadelphia inform me, when I asked him about three weeks ago, that the committee had not yet reached consideration of this bill?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I guess that possibly the gentleman asked me a day or two before we considered it.

Mr. HOOPEs. But, Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has said that he considered it early in February?

Mr. SOWERS. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOOPEs. It was late in February, Mr. Speaker, when I asked the gentleman the question.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, it might have been the next day. You know, the gentleman may have urged further consideration and I granted it to him.

Mr. HOOPEs. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, if it is not a fact that when I asked him whether they had considered this bill, he told me they had not had time to do it, that they were too busy drafting beer legislation?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I might have told the gentleman from Berks a lot of things.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Hoopes and Mr. Melchiorre and were as follows:

RESOLUTION

LIQUOR CONTROL BILLS TO BE REFERRED TO SPECIAL COMMITTEE

Messrs. SOWERS and CONNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, March 20, 1933.

Whereas, A resolution was offered to the House of Representatives on March 7, 1933, Serial Number 39, Resolution No. 24, Printer's No. 57, and was adopted on February 13, 1933 authorizing the Speaker to appoint a House committee to draft a bill to regulate the manufacture, sale and traffic in liquor, and the Speaker on February 20, 1933 appointed said committee and said committee has about completed its labor and is about ready to report a mild beverage bill and a liquor control bill, and

Whereas, It is fitting and proper that these two bills when offered to the House should be referred to the said House Committee to draft a bill to regulate the manufacture, sale and traffic in liquor for further study consideration and amendment and for the consideration of suggestions from the public and to perform these duties, then to report the said bills either as committed or as amended if they think it right and proper, now therefore be it

Resolved, That when the said bills are offered to the House by the sponsors thereof that the Speaker refer the said bills to the said committee for further consideration, study and amendment and public hearing if deemed advisable, and to report the said bills to the House either as committed or amended, if it is deemed advisable.

COMMITTEE PERMITTED TO SIT DURING SESSION OF HOUSE

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, your committee to draft liquor control legislation requests the House to grant it permission to meet during the session of the House. The committee expects to report the bills before it to the House in five or ten minutes.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give it unanimous consent to the Committee to sit during the session of the House? Are there objections? The Chair hears none and consent is granted.

STATEMENT ON ST. PATRICK'S DAY DINNER

Mr. HEFFERNAN asked and received unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I desire to make an announcement regarding your event tomorrow night at the Penn Harris Hotel. Under the auspices of the Legislative Sons of St. Patrick, the annual banquet will be held in the ball room of the Penn Harris Hotel tomorrow evening at 7.30 o'clock.

I regret that on account of the large number of persons who would like to attend the dinner that the Chairman is entirely out of tickets at this time. The House has been sold out but we are trying our best to make arrangements with the management of the hotel to lease us another room where we may be able to take care of those who have been here at the desk tonight asking me for an extra ticket.

There are many nice surprises in store for those who are going to be there. One in particular that will appeal to every person who will be present is the presence of Ray Fabiani, former director of the Chicago Civic Opera Company and his accompanist will be Professor Benjamin Cortesi, whom he will bring with him.

I assure all of those who are intending to be present that they will have a very, very nice time, and I ask you to be there promptly at 7.30, and in the meantime I will try to do all I possibly can to take care of all of the members of the House who desire to be there.

The SPEAKER. The remarks by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Heffernan, will be spread upon the Journal.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Philadelphia and myself now offer to the House a bill for the regulation and distribution of mild beverages.
